AUDITIONS SET FOR OUTDOOR DRAMA FRIDAY

Auditions for the symphonic outdoor drama "The Confederacy" will be held in Portsmouth Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8. It has been announced by the Tidewater Historical Association, the sponsoring organization.

Dr. Samuel Selden, who will direct the production, will fly to Norfolk from Chapel Hill, N. C. Selden, on the faculty of the University of North Carolina and Dean of Outdoor Theater, has worked with Green many years in both "The Lost Colony" at Manteo, N. C., and "Wilderness Road" at Berea, Ky.

The association's announcement emphasized that voices must be capable of projecting at least 150 feet for all speaking parts, due to the vastness of the outdoor theater. Those interested in acting roles were instructed to come prepared with a one-minute reading demonstrating their abilities.

During the auditions application will also be taken for the singing, dancing, technical and administrative positions that will be part of the company of over 100.

Directors of the association expect most of the roles to be filled with talent from the Tidewater area. A large number of applications are expected from the many Little Theater groups, college students, interested persons and supporters of the project. The rehearsal period for the play will run through June and July with performances each night except Monday through July and August.

Forms for applications can be obtained by writing to "The Confederacy" at Virginia Beach, or be available at the school on Friday and Saturday.

County Office Sets New Mark In Collections

County Treasurer V. Alfred Etheridge has set a new record in the collection of current and delinquent tax levies, according to an audit just released by the state auditor of public accounts.

J. Gordon Bennett in an audit of county funds for the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1957, showed that Etheridge collected $1,806,463 or 91.82 per cent of the current levy during the year and $105,826 in delinquent taxes. This brought the total to both categories to 96.89 per cent of the levy.

Etheridge's collection ratio has increased each year he has been in office. In 1954-55 the collection record was 93.82 per cent. In 1955-56 it rose to 95.62 and this year was topped by the new record of 96.89.

Commenting on the county's audit, Bennett said the treasurer had made "proper accounting" for all funds coming into his custody and that the county records "generally had been prepared in very good order."

They May Call You

You may receive a telephone call from one of the young ladies shown above. They are Miss Becky Gallup, Mrs. Edythe Williams and Mrs. Cora Woodard. They are making daily telephone calls to subscribers of the Virginia Beach telephone exchange of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. They are giving instruction in the use of the new dial system which will be put in operation here on April 20, according to L. F. Patrick, area manager for the telephone company.

Judge Reed Satisfied With Present County Court Hours

Judge J. Davis Reed Jr. feels that the present three-day court schedule is sufficient for now and apparently the Princess Anne County Court will continue to maintain its present schedule. Judge Reed said he believed the five sessions "unnecessary," and advised that he would continue the present schedule of criminal sessions on Monday and Friday afternoons with juvenile and domestic relations and civic cases being heard on Wednesday afternoon.

He qualified his stand, however, by saying that the ultimate decision would rest with Judge Floyd E. Kellam of the Circuit Court, under whose jurisdiction the lower court comes. Judge Kellam declined to comment.

County officials for several months have been concerned with the congestion and resulting floor load in the second story courtroom, which is located in a building housing the Princess Anne Volunteer Fire Department. Some discussion of a new courtroom was considered, but according to one official the county is "not now in a financial condition to undertake its construction."

Judge Reed said that he would appoint an assistant bailiff to work in the court while it is in session. In order to relieve congestion, he said, a portion of the crowd can be kept on the first floor until their presence is needed in the courtroom.

The county's budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 contains funds for fire escapes and a new entrance to the present county courtroom.

GALLERY TALK OF CATESBY JONES COLLECTION AT NORFOLK MUSEUM

On Sunday, March 9th, there will be a gallery talk on the Catesby Jones Collection of paintings, loaned from the Richmond Museum, to the Norfolk Museum, for the month of March, at three o'clock, by Mrs. Bertha Fanning Taylor.

The talk will be given in the North Gallery before the paintings and will be on the subject "From the Impressionist Painters to Picasso" as shown in the Catesby Jones collection," stressing the different stages painting has gone through from 1863 to the present day.

The talk will be free to the public.

BOY'S SCHOOL HERE GAINING IN POPULARITY

Plans are moving ahead swiftly for the establishment of a boys' prep school in Virginia Beach to be known as the Lynnhaven College Preparatory School for Boys, according to Captain Hugh S. Gallery, one of the chief organizers of the school.

Since the original announcement of the possibility of the school there have been nine applications for teaching positions, according to Capt. Gallery.

Parents of 64 children have expressed interest in the school and the organizers are expected to announce the location of the school in the near future.

The demand and interest in seventh and eighth grades has prompted the inclusion of these grades in the new school, according to Capt. Gallery.

Gallery announced that the school is interested in hearing from parrots with children in the seventh to twelfth grades. Capt. Gallery may be contacted by writing to him at P. O. Box 51, Virginia Beach.

Easter Seals Sale Campaign Opens Today

The 1958 Easter Seal campaign for the Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults will begin on March 6. It was announced today by Mr. R. H. Owen, president of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Chapter of the Society. The drive will continue for a month, through Easter Sunday.

Owen pointed out that the quota has been set. "Our program is one of true voluntary giving," he said. "For this reason we have never set a quota for our campaign. We feel that the work being carried on by our organization is deserving of public support and are confident that with our record of service to the handicapped we will receive even a greater response to our appeal than in previous years."

The Easter Seal Society provided services to 3,681 children and 1,554 adults last year, a total of 5,235 handicapped persons served. These services were rendered through the clinic treatment centers, and other facilities supported by Easter Seal funds.

Persons with almost every type of handicap are assisted by the Society, including polio, cerebral

Key Club Formed At Beach School

The Virginia Beach High School now has a Key Club which is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Virginia Beach and which was chartered at a dinner meeting held last week in the Star Hotel here.

The charter to the Virginia Beach Key Club is the 1954th issued by Key Clubs International. The charter was presented to Joe Buchanan, president of the new Key Club, at the banquet honoring Key Clubs of the 13th division of Capital District which embraces all of Tidewater.

Presentation of the charter was made by Harland Brownfield, of Wilmington, Del., Key Club committee chairman of the Capital District.

More than 150 members of Key Clubs and their sponsoring Kiwanis Club from Norfolk, Portsmouth, South Norfolk, Newport News, Hampton, Warwick and Suffolk were on hand.

Sam Lacombe, a Silver Springs, Md., high school student, who is district governor of Key Clubs in the Capital District, warned the youthful Key Clubs members that juvenile delinquency stems from today's "no regard for the other fellow." Calling on the Key Clubbers to dedicate themselves to service to schools, churches and communities, he cautioned that cooperation must exist if we are to remain a leader among nations.

Lacombe shared speaking honors with Harrell Bauer Jr. of Hampton and lieutenant governor

The manufacturer is Carroll O. Clough, who was named last week by Circuit Court Judge Floyd E. Kellam to represent the newly created Bayside Masterial District.

Pollock assumed his new duties the past Monday and was scheduled to take his oath of office on Wednesday. He is a native of Trenton, N. C., and has lived in Kempville for more than 10 years.

Pollock has conducted an insurance business with offices in Kempville since 1940. He served as collector of delinquent taxes for the county from 1946 to 1948.

The new Kempville supervisor helped organize the Kempville Ruritan Club and was its first president. He is a member of the Kempville Baptist Church and is on the board of deacons. He also teaches one of the church's men's Bible classes.

Clough was sworn in last week shortly after Judge Kellam ordered the previous Kempville District divided, creating the new Bayside District. Clough has been a resident of Princess Anne County for the past 21 years.

Clough, 51, is the assistant secretary-treasurer of the J. C. Williams Corp. in South Norfolk, manufacturers of industrial doors. A native of Franklin, he has lived in Princess Anne County for the past 31 years.

His home is at 1110 Lady Shore Road in the Lake Shore subdivision.

He has served for a number of years on the Selective Service Board for Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach. Before taking office as supervisor, he resided from his post.

Clough is a member of the county's Democratic Executive Committee and of the Bayside Lions Club. He is on the board of stewards of the Haywood Methodist Church.

STAGE PLAY PRESENTED

"The Reluctant Debutante" a stage presentation by the Barter Theatre Group of Virginia, was presented at the Station Theatre Wednesday evening, March 5th. Starring Beth St. Clair, the play involved the social custom of the upperclass families of supposedly introducing their daughters at 18 or thereabouts to "society" at a formal "coming out" party. Making a "debut" or beginning of social life goes on the assumption that until that moment a teenage girl has never before had a date or met her social peers, but has instead been cloistered in a nursery or a convent.

Certainly the eligible young bachelors have a grand time of free-loading at party after party to which they are invited rather pointedly for the sake of dancing with, even dallying with, and eventually marrying well-brought up young girls.

BOQ RELOCATED

Relocation of the Bachelor Officers Quarters is scheduled for March 8th, when some 130 officers will transfer their personal belongings from the North Station BOQ to the new three-story BOQ on the South Station.

Each deck of the building is equipped with a small reading, writing room and a TV area.

OCEANA COUNTY TOURNAMENT
OCEANA-In the double elimination Ocean County C-ge Tourney now taking place in the Kempville Elementary School Gymnasium favor teams don't mean a thing. Already two of the top seeded teams, the Western Auto Flyers and the Kempville Lions, have been eliminated from the tournament.

The Kempville Lions were eliminated last Thursday evening in the semi-finals when they were defeated 37 to 35 by the Bayside Lions.

The tournament is now in the final round of play. Monday night the Bayside Lions, winners of the loser's bracket, upset the Oceana Blue Angels, winners of the winner's bracket, 35 to 34. The game wasn't decided until the last three seconds of play. With the score
34 to 33 in favor of the Blue Angels, Duane Britlett, of the Lions, took a wild shot from mid-court for the final one point margin that gave the Lions the victory.

By virtue of this win the tournament was forced into an additional game since the Blue Angels had not lost a game and the Lions had lost one. The final game was played last Tuesday evening and the results were not known when the paper went to press.

Social Fraternities Gain at East Carolina

Giant strides toward the establishment of a national social fraternity on the campus of East Carolina College have been made by members of the Delta Sigma Rho.

This local fraternity, formed during the month of October, 1956, is corresponding and working toward affiliation with Lambda Chi Alpha. Their progress was reported at a dinner meeting held last night at the Greenville Country Club, attended by college officials, members of the fraternity and individuals instrumental in the strife for national affiliation.

Speaking about social fraternities, Dr. Orval Phillips, Registrar, noted that much could be accomplished by such organizations. The areas of service pointed out to the group were: helpfulness to the individual student service to the fraternity service to the college and service to the community.

Dr. John H. Tucker, dean of men, and James Butler, alumni secretary, J. H. Waldrop, member of the College Board of Trustees, also present.

The future of social fraternities on the East Carolina campus is promising.

In addition to the Delta Sigma Rho, three other local social fraternities are making strides toward affiliation with national organizations. They are: Kappa Sigma Nu, with Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi
Phi, with Kappa Alpha and Phi Kappa Alpha, Phi Kappa Alpha.

Has Made Progress
Kataias states the Delta Sigma Rho was original organized with the ultimate idea of affiliating with a national fraternity organization. "In the event we affiliate, it will be a realization of many months of planning and strife," he commented.

The fraternity was organized during the early months of the Fall Quarter in 1956. At the time of its organization, there were 25 members. Now there are 41 members and nine pledges.

According to Kataias his group is currently corresponding with Lambda Chi Alpha and it is "very possible" that an affiliation will be made sometime within the next few months. The formal petition

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

National Guard Must Be Maintained

National Guard officials and State military leaders are disturbed over what is proposed that would reduce the number of units and strength of the National Guard. According to fact sheets mailed out by Major General Sheppard Crump, Virginia's Adjutant General, and Major General Milton A. Reckord, the Adjutant General of Maryland, proposed action would thoroughly disrupt the present units and organizations of the National Guard and eventually destroy the Guard.

It is contended that changes in the National Guard are being made illegally. This contention is backed up by Section 140 of Title 32, U.S. Code, which states: "No change in the branch, organization or allotment of a (National Guard) unit, located entirely within a state, may be made without the approval of its Governor," federal authorities are refusing to ask the Congress for necessary funds to support existing National Guard units and therefore, contrary to the law quoted above, the reduction of these units will be accomplished by the non-availability of funds for their support.

Authorities point out that basic training in the National Guard is compulsory but federal officials, as yet, have failed to provide funds in the budget, or ask Congress to do so, with which to pay for said training.

According to Maryland's General Reckord re-assuring statements by President Eisenhower and Army Secretary Brucker that the National Guard will be maintained are not in keeping with proposed action that will materially reduce the strength of the National Guard and destroy units and organizations with long and distinguished records which date back three centuries and more.

From communications from Generals Crump and Reckord the National Guard is in trouble. Nothing should be done that would weaken the strength of the National Guard and certainly any changes should be done with the full consent of the Governor and the States.

New Supervisors Well Qualified

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors has now become a six-member governing body and at the same time two new members have been appointed.

Princess Anne Circuit Court Judge Floyd E. Kellam has appointed Carroll G. Clough to represent the new Bayside Magisterial District and Swindell Pollock to represent the Kempville Magisterial District. Pollock's appointment fills the vacancy created by the resignation and subsequent death of E. I. Herrick, who had served as the Kempville Supervisor for the past 16 years.

Princess Anne County is fortunate, we feel, in being able to secure the services of these two men. The districts they represent are fortunate in having these representatives. Both men should bring much business experience and knowledge of county affairs to the Board.

Supervisor Clough has been a resident of Princess Anne County for the past 31 years and Supervisor Pollock has resided in Kempville for more than ten years. Both men are well versed in the problems and needs of the county and of their respective districts.

We congratulate both men on their appointments and we are confident that the trust that has been placed in these men is justified. They are well equipped to help guide the county in its many problems that lie ahead in this rapidly developing area. We wish them well in their new positions.

A Loss to Princess Anne

Princess Anne County lost a fine citizen and devoted public servant with the passing of E. I. Herrick last week. Mr. Herrick was 80 years old and had represented the Kempville District on the County Board of Supervisors for the past 16 years.

Although Mr. Herrick was in ill health for the past few months it was only up until the last three meetings of the Board of Supervisors that he was unable to attend. He had missed only a very few meetings of the Board throughout the 16 years of his devoted service to the Kempville District and to his beloved Princess Anne County.

Mr. Herrick was a man who had a keen knowledge of the needs and desires of the people he represented. His district had grown rapidly in population since World War Two and it was his suggestion to the court that prompted the recent division of the Kempville District thereby creating the new Bayside Magisterial District.

His colleagues within the county administration will miss the wisdom and experience that Mr. Herrick had gained through the years and his inspiring personality will long be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to know this fine gentleman.

We share in his family's bereavement and loss and will long cherish the memory of Supervisor Edgar I. Herrick and are thankful that we were privileged to know him.

E. I. Herrick, County Supervisor, Dies Suddenly at Kempville Home

E. I. Herrick, who had represented the Kempville Magisterial District for the past 16 years, died last Saturday night in a Norfolk hospital. His resignation from the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors was announced the day he died.

Due to ill health Herrick had been unable to attend the last three meetings of the board. Swindell Pollock, 50-year-old Kempville insurance man, has been named by Circuit Court Judge Floyd E. Kellam to succeed Herrick.

Born in Kempville, January, 1878, he grew up in the community and as a youth operated a general merchandise store there. He retired from business about 15 years ago and since then had devoted all of his energies to the supervisor's post.

His wife, Mrs. Elsie B. Herrick, died last August. He was a member of Kempville Baptist Church.

Herrick said in his letter of resignation to Judge Kellam: "My association with the officials and residents of Princess Anne County has been a most pleasant one, and I wish for the county a most prosperous and progressive future."

In 1945 when he offered for reelection, he pledged a continuing fight against annexation of any part of Kempville district by Norfolk, and lower taxes.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. John A. Hutchinson and Mrs. Swindell Pollock, and two grand-children, Dan H. Pollock and Frances E. Pollock, all of Kempville.

The body was removed to the Hollomon-Crown Funeral Home. The funeral was held Monday afternoon.

Mentally Retarded Receive $500 from Beach Civitan Club

Mr. E. R. Amburn, chairman of the committee for Mentally Retarded Children of the Civitan Club of Virginia Beach has announced that the local Civitan Club has donated $500.00 to the Foundation for Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children, of the Chesapeake District.

This $500.00 donation is the first of many such which the Virginia Beach Civitans hope to make to the Foundation and these funds will be used for research and education in the field of mentally retarded children.

At a recent district Civitan meeting the project of Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children was adopted in the district. It is hoped that the project will soon be adopted by the entire district. Bill Wrenn, district president, is working hard toward this goal.

Miss Mary Robin White, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. White, has returned to her home on 69th Street after attending the dance and winter games at the U.S. Naval Academy last week-end.

Boat Owners Urged to Have Inspection Early

Rear Adm. H. C. Moore, Commander of the Fifth Coast Guard District urged today that owners of charter boats coming under provisions of the Ray Act have their vessels inspected as soon as possible.

This new law, which becomes effective on June 1, 1958, requires inspection for most types of vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire.

Owners taking advantage of the Coast Guard offer to make the free inspection early, will have more time to make any required alterations and will thus avoid being put out of commission during the heights of the party boat season.

The District Commander indicated that a vessel found to have minor defects will be allowed a reasonable time to correct them but added that one with major discrepancies will not be allowed to operate after June 1, 1958.

Admiral Moore further reported that less than 10 applications for this free inspection had been received to date by Coast Guard Marine Inspection Offices in Norfolk, Baltimore, and Wilmington, N.C.

The first inspection certificates under the new Ray Act were recently issued to 17 party boat owners in New York by Rep. John E. Ray (R-N.Y.), who first introduced the legislation six years ago.

Officially known as Public Law 519, the Ray Act requires vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire to be inspected and licensed if they are:

- (1) Propelled in whole or in part by steam or by any form of mechanical or electrical power and are of 15 gross tons or less or;
- (2) Propelled in whole or in part by steam or by any form of mechanical or electrical power and are of more than 15 gross tons and less than 100 gross tons and not more than 45 feet in length measured from end over the deck excluding sheer; or;
- (3) Propelled by sail and are of 700 gross tons or less; or;
- (4) Non self-propelled and are of 100 gross tons or less.

FORT STORY TELLINGS

POST CHAPLAIN VACANCY FILLED AT STORY

Fort Story, Va.—Fort Story headquarters has announced that Chaplain (Major) Francis S. Milovic has been appointed Post Chaplain, replacing Chaplain (Captain) Edward F. Spilane who was recently reassigned to the Army Chemical Center at Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland.

Chaplain Milovic reported to Fort Story from Fort Davis in the Panama Canal Zone where he was also Post Chaplain.

Before entering the Army in 1943, the new Chaplain was assigned as a parish priest in the Kansas City, Missouri Catholic Diocese with duties at St. Peter's Catholic Church in Kansas City.

He graduated from St. Bonaventure High School, Olean, New York in 1944 and went on to graduate from St. Bonaventure College in 1948.

Anthony Milovic, the 52-year-old Chaplain's father, makes his home on Erie, Penn.

SOLDIER OF THE MONTH

Fort Story, Va.—A Senior Supply Specialist, Third Class Peter M. Burton, has been chosen as Fort Story's "Soldier of the Month" for March.

Specialist Burton, a member of the 461st Amphibious Truck Company, maintains and is responsible for the supply records and accounts of his unit. He is also in charge of all the company's military radios.

Before entering the Army in November, 1953, Burton was an instructor in radio and television repair with the Television Training Institute in Miami, Florida, his home town. He put his knowledge of tubes and transistors to use in Korea, where he was assigned as Senior Radio Repairman with the 8th Army Signal Battalion, Tejon, Korea. Last May he returned to the United States and was assigned to Fort Story.

Burton has taken advantage of the Army's education program to the tune of a high school diploma and one year of college through the Armed Forces Institute. He plans to re-enlist next November.

Appearing before a selection board along with representation of other Fort Story units, Burton impressed the board members with his military bearing, service record, knowledge of military subjects, and current events to emerge as Soldier of the Month. This is Burton's second time in five months as Soldier of the Month.

FORD EXECUTIVE SPEAKS AT STORY

Fort Story's officers heard a representative of the Ford Motor Company's Norfolk plant talk to them Tuesday, February 25th morning at the officers' weekly class. Mr. J. Joseph Matasica, a member of the Industrial Relations Department of the plant spoke on the similarities between the operation of a large industrial plant and the operation of a large Army unit.

Mr. Matasica compared the staff sections and operating units of his Norfolk plant to the components of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C," the major unit located at Fort Story. He drew a parallel between the problems faced by industry and those being encountered by the service.

Matasica is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Army.

Auditions Scheduled In Area for The Confederacy

Over one hundred application forms have already been given out by the Tidewater Historic Drama Association to persons planning to try-out for parts in the new Paul Green drama THE CONFEDERACY. Many times that number will pick up forms during the auditions in Portsmouth.

The auditions are scheduled for the Woodrow Wilson High School in Portsmouth on Friday and Saturday of this week. The Friday sessions will be both in the afternoon and evening, and Saturday's afternoon session will be for those not able to attend the Friday sessions, and those "called back" by the director.

John Caudle, General Manager for THE CONFEDERACY, said that due to the great enthusiasm held by the little theatres of the several participating communities, it is probable that most of the company of over 100 will be contracted from this area. A large turnout is anticipated in Portsmouth from the Virginia Beach.

'Out of This World' Theme of Art Assn. Costume Ball

Mrs. Braden Vandevanter Jr., president of the Virginia Beach Art Association, has announced that Mrs. J. Frank East III will be chairman of the Art and Models Costume Ball, to be held at the Cavalier Club, Virginia Beach, Va., on April 11, 1958.

Assisting Mrs. East are Mrs. John R. Anderson and Mrs. W. Carey Pennin, tickets; Mrs. Lawrence B. Wales Jr., decorations; Miss Mary Taylor Gwathmey, prizes; Mrs. Alice G. Parier, posters and invitation; Mrs. V. B. Tate and Mrs. T. Fraser James, publicity.

The timely theme of the ball will be "Out of This World," with emphasis on visitors to, or from, outer space. Prizes will be awarded to costumes judged to be most attractive as follows:

Best Man, Best Woman, Best Couple and Funniest. A ten dollar cash prize will be given for the costume selected as Most Attractive of the Ball. Tickets are $5.00 per couple, tax included, all proceeds going to the building fund of the Virginia Beach Art Association.

The interested public is cordially invited.

Little Theatre under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Masury, and from the many other Tidewater theatre groups.

Also while here the director, Sam Selden of the University of North Carolina, will interview persons interested in the various staff positions which have not yet been filled. It is hoped that the organist, assistant organist, choreographer, musical director and costumers will all be available locally. Applications will also be taken during the try-out sessions for many other positions necessary for the successful operation of Paul Green's symphonic outdoor drama.

Those interested in any position with the drama either as stage crew, lighting engineer, sound technician, usher, concessions or parking attendant should secure an application from the drama office in Virginia Beach, or at the try-outs.

Since it will be necessary for some of the members of THE CONFEDERACY company to move to Virginia Beach to avoid many trips necessary for rehearsals and performances, the management has asked that persons having furnished efficiency apartments available for such personnel during June, July, and August should contact the office for the drama at 19th and Arctic.

Vet Service Officer Here Thursday For Regular Visit

On Thursday, March 13, 1958, there will be a service officer available at the Community House, 18th and Arctic Avenue, for vets and their survivors, between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m.

As usual, this trip is made by T. A. Moore on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays monthly. Moore handles claims and problems as an agent for the Virginia State Division of War Veterans' Claims Aid is free and by a trained and informed representative.

The Division is under Harry F. Carper Jr., located in VA building in Roanoke, operating under Attorney General Albert S. Harrison Jr., Virginia Department of Law.

Moore's office is in Norfolk at McKerritt Building, 203 City Hall Ave.—phone Madison 2-9671.

Imagine Being Happy During CHANGE-OF-LIFE!

Thousands of women now go "smiling through" those trying years—without awful suffering from "hot flashes," tension! Science has exploded old myths about change-of-life! Countless women have found you no longer have to feel sickly, "old" before your time. Today, many can enjoy change-of-life—without that terrible suffering! Lydia Pinkham's remarkable Tablets have been developed especially to relieve those functionally-caused "female miseries." Their unique combination of medicines even includes blood-strengthening iron! That's why, with Pinkham's Tablets, you can escape much of the "hot flashes," clammy feelings, weakness and irritability so common to women between 35 and 55. You're ready to start living again!

NO PAINFUL SHOTS!

8 out of 10 women tested by doctors did get such thrilling relief—without costly shots! Why not you? Get Lydia E. Pinkham's Tablets at drug stores today. See if you don't quickly find new happiness during change-of-life!

IF YOU PREFER A LIQUID all druggists also have famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

THIS NEW WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" CAN SAVE YOU $20 TO $90 PER ACRE IN VEGETABLE CROPS

It's Vegadex, and it kills weeds for you in a new way. You spray it only once—at planting time. Vegadex forms an invisible chemical blanket over your soil that smothers weeds. Pesky annual grasses—even tough weeds like purslane and henbit—sprout, touch the "blanket," and die. Because weeds seldom appear, Vegadex can cut labor costs for hand weeding as much as $90 per acre. Your vegetables come through unharmed, with no weeds to fight them for sunlight, water and plant food. And Vegadex won't "build up" in your soil, even if you spray each time you plant.

Before you plant your next crop, drop by your nearest Monsanto Farm Chemicals Dealer. He'll tell you how Vegadex adds extra profits to every acre of vegetables you harvest.

WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" IN ACTION!
All celery planted same time. Only difference: celery at left was hand sprayed once with Vegadex at planting. Results like this, last year, saved commercial growers from $20 to $90 an acre on hand-weeding costs.

Make sure you're spraying right. Ask your Monsanto Dealer about the special offer on the SPRAY-RATER that accurately measures the amount of spray your rig applies per acre.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC GROWERS: Vegadex is safe for spinach, collards, kale, mustard, turnips, hanger radish, broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbages, cauliflower, leeks, beans, lima beans, soybeans, garden peas, celery, lettuce, sweet corn, field corn.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Sis "Puts on the Dog"

My paper's got two subscribers—Sis Harper and her brother Rip—out on lonely Sunset Mountain. A road goes by the farm and both copies are mailed to her because Rip lives back in the woods.

Sis always has her brother's copy of the Sun-News—plus any mail—to an old house on the mountain. She says she's never to Rip's place. "Rip feeds the dog half of his dinner," Sis explains. "I give him the other half when he gets back. Speeds him along."

Thanks to Sis—I bet the Sun-News is the only dog-powered delivery system in the U.S.A.

From where I sit, Sis may live in the "backwoods" but she's got a wide-awake mind. Contrast that with some people who refuse to own up to their more than one opinion on any subject—like whether beer or buttermilk makes the best beverage. That mountain air sure keeps those "dog-eared" communication channels open!

COUNTY BOARD OF AGRICULTURE SETS PROGRAM FOR 1958

The County Board of Agriculture adopted plans Thursday night at the annual Board of Agriculture meeting to conduct a "Corn Net Return Improvement Club." This club will be designed to carry out across the board recommendations in corn production to determine those ways in which to increase the net returns for corn. The club will consist of approximately 20 farmers selected from each district by the County Agent. The farmers will be asked to keep an accurate record on their methods of corn production, harvesting and marketing; and the findings will be made available to all farmers in the county upon the completion of this project. It is estimated that the program will last from 4 to 5 years.

This and many other activities were adopted on February 27 at the County Board of Agriculture at a dinner meeting sponsored by the Princess Anne Inn. The board consists of 40 farmers working on 8 different commodity committees. They meet together to determine plans for the Extension Service to work on for the year. These committees are: poultry, dairy, livestock, corn and small grain, soybeans, pasture and forage crops, potato and vegetable and soil conservation. Chairman John Baum presided at the meeting calling for reports from each of the committee chairmen.

Poultry Program

Herman Dudley of Back Bay reporting on the poultry committee said that there were three major problems in the poultry business. First of all, the small producers are practicing poor sanitation; second, was the evidence of poor marketing and markets for eggs and broilers; and third, there is a drastic lack of litter material for poultrymen.

The plans adopted to carry out in 1958 were to work on an organization of poultry producers in the county; second, to assist with Chamber of Commerce Agriculture Committee in conducting a one-day poultry school; and third, to look into the possibilities of securing poultry litter from new sources.

Dairy Program

Clark Fleming, manager of Bayville Farms, reporting for the Dairy Committee said that they are recommending the organization of a 4-H Dairy Club to stimulate dairy projects. They are also suggesting that Dairy Herd Improvement Associations hold two DHEA Analysis meetings—one in January and one in July. The Dairy Short Course is sponsored by the Agriculture Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the committee has suggested that an exhibit of hay grades and also other information on cutting and baling of hay for best quality be presented at the annual Dairy Short Course.

BEF CATTLE

Chairman of the Livestock Committee, Howard Jones, gave these recommendations to be carried out in the livestock industry. Due to the poor quality of cattle found on some farms they are recommending that all farmers be encouraged and assisted in every way possible in purchasing good quality purebred bulls. The second recommendation was to work very closely with the Norfolk and Portsmouth Chambers of Commerce in developing a Sales Pavilion for this general area. They also believe that each major beef producer should be visited each year and discussed with them the different systems of marketing their calf crop. The Livestock Committee has recommended that a production letter encouraging good management of beef cattle of all degrees be prepared and mailed to all producers.

There were 4 major sheep recommendations adopted: (1) to hire commercial sheep shearers to shear sheep that can not be sheared by local sheep shearers. (2) To hold 3 lamb sales in cooperation with the eastern Virginia counties. (3) Hold a County Wool Pool. (4) To invite all sheep producers to visit one of the lamb sales whether selling lambs or not.

The committee made 3 recommendations to the County Agent: (1) To hold some type of hog grading demonstration in the county; (2) Assist farmers in purchasing meat-type hogs; (3) to encourage major hog producers to build farrowing units. The county average of saving pigs per litter is 4 pigs.

Corn and Small Grain

In addition to the organization of the Corn Net Return Improvement Club, Marion Bright, chairman of the committee, reported on other recommendations for extension activities. Each farmer, businessman and fertilizer dealer will receive in the near future a brief outline of all the practices involved in corn production. This time for the first year the recommendations for grain sorghum will be included. Another very important recommendation is that a meeting be held of all seed dealers and fertilizer representatives serving the county to discuss recommended varieties for 1958 and fertilization. This meeting to be held in October, preparing for the coming year.

In small grain, in addition to the October meeting just listed, a garlic control demonstration will be carried out on the farm of Everett Sawyer.

Soybeans
Earl Tschultz of Route 2, Hickory, Virginia reporting on the Soybean Committee outlined the following activities for 1958. First, that a soybean production series be prepared and distributed to all soybean producers in the county; second, weeds in soybeans are a real problem. The committee recommended that we have a weed control demonstration with Dr. Dan Danielson at USDA in charge. Dr. Danielson was previously located at the Virginia Truck Experiment Station. Third, insects are causing a considerable loss of money to farmers producing soybeans. The committee has recommended that we get advice about insect control from the Truck Station and notify the farmers of the county of this service. In connection with the service of the Truck Station they have recommended a meeting for farmers on identifying harmful and unharmed insects of soybeans and the proper treatment and when to apply.

Pasture and Forage Crops
Bob Deibel, Holmes Dairy farmer, reporting on the Pasture and Forage Crops Committee has recommended that a second pasture tour be held. In 1956 this pasture tour would be for the purpose of seeing good pasture and forage during the dry weather months. Things suggested to be seen on the pasture tour are Coastal Bermuda, Irrigated Permanent Pasture, Non-irrigated permanent pasture, Sudan-Feast Millet grazing comparison, and fescue pasture fertilization with nitrogen.

In addition to this pasture tour they have recommended an alfalfa fertilizer demonstration to prolong the life of alfalfa stands. If possible to work out, they would like to have a strip grazing demonstration and also a beef cattle rotational grazing demonstration. May is an important crop to beef cattle farmers in the county. The committee has recommended that 4 demonstrations be held on Red Clover for hay, Potato and Vegetable Program SWEET POTATOES.

Mr. B. A. Manning of Princess Anne reported that the potato and vegetable committee is recommending a demonstration on growing, harvesting, and marketing sweet potatoes. To help control this general problem they are also recommending a Nemagold variety demonstration and to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce and board of Commerce in carrying out a complete demonstration on growing, harvesting, and marketing.

IRISH POTATOES

To improve yields and quality of Irish Potatoes, a similar across the board demonstration on growing, harvesting, and marketing of Irish potatoes is recommended.

Soil Conservation

Carlton Titheridge, chairman of Soil Conservation Committee and member of the Board of Supervisors of the Virginia Dare Soil Conservation Service pointed out that all people of the county are not generally informed about Soil Conservation. In view of this fact, the Conservation Committee has recommended the sending of three county teachers to the VY Short Course to be held this summer. To further get Soil Conservation story across to the people, it was recommended that the functions and importance of soil conservation be discussed with

Bay Shore Garden Club Meets Feb. 26

Bay Shore Garden Club will hold a dessert benefit party on Thursday, Feb. 26, 1:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. G. Baughman on Abington Road. Mrs. Roy E. Polk, general chairman announced that several valuable door prizes will be awarded, and prizes given at each table. Mrs. T. J. Kenney, will serve as ticket chairman and Mrs. J. S. Bibb, chairman of refreshments. The Bay Shore Club was organized October 1956, and this is the first project sponsored by the club and Mrs. Polk stated that all proceeds would be used for the beautification and landscaping in Bay Colony.

Mrs. J. G. Trafton Jr. president presided at the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. George E. Miller on Abington Road at 10 a.m. Wednesday, February 26. Mrs. Michael F. Bannett was co-hostess for the meeting.

Mrs. Trafton presented Mrs. D. B. Boykin, who spoke to the members of the club on the importance of the basic principles, proper planning, pruning and care of Camellias. Slides of different varieties of Camellias and Camellia Gardens in Virginia Beach and Wilmington, N. C. were shown by Mrs. Boykin.

Ribbons for arrangements were awarded to Mrs. C. G. Baughman, Mrs. D. B. Boykin, Mrs. J. S. Mathews, Mrs. Raymond Fritz and Mrs. H. L. Walsh were guests and 18 members present.

4-H clubs of the county. They have also recommended to have the farm page of the Virginia Pilot devoted to Soil Conservation with occasional stories appearing in the local papers in the County Agents column.

These are the major activities that the folks in the County Agent's office will be carrying on in agriculture for the remainder of this year. It is a rather full plan and I hope that carrying out plans will be a great benefit to the farmers of the county.

At the close of the meeting, Gordon Potter was elected chairman of the County Board of Agriculture and Ralph Frost, co-chairman. Each committee chairman was asked to be present at the Agricultural Extension Service Board to be held on March 6. This meeting will coordinate the Agricultural Program, Youth Program, and Home Demonstration Program for the county. This then will make up the over-all extension program for the county for 1958.

Volunteers Needed Here

The Volunteer Service Bureau which is sponsored by the Council of Social Agencies will conduct interviews in Virginia Beach on March 17 and 18. It has been announced.

Interviews will be conducted at the Community House, 18th street and Arctic avenue, between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

Officials of the Volunteer Service Bureau have asked that everyone interested in the work please come to the Community House either March 17 or March 18 for an interview. Volunteers are urgently needed. It was pointed out.

Women Give Many Hours To Volunteer Fire Group

Virginia Beach — Members of the Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department, and its Women's Auxiliary, contributed a total of 2,062 hours, or a total of more than 86 full days during 1957.

This unusual record was disclosed recently after a study of figures taken from the files of Fire Chief E. B. Bayne. The hours were spent in actual fire fighting and in attendance at drills, which are held twice monthly for both units.

Bayne, who directs the activities of the volunteer units as well as those of the city's 13 regular firemen, said that 599 firemen in attendance at the 428 alarms during the year were members of the volunteer units. This represents 298 man hours.

In addition, the chief said, both the volunteer firemen and members of the auxiliary, attend two meetings a month, where they learn fire fighting techniques, first aid, the use of equipment and other necessary qualifications. Members of both units, for instance, are holders of third class radio licenses.

The 35 members of the men's volunteer unit had an average attendance of 27 members at their meetings on the second and fourth Tuesday nights of each month. The meetings last two hours. This provided 972 man hours for the record.

The women also compiled an additional 792 hours with their average attendance of 22 members (out of 25) at the 18 meetings during the year. (No meetings are held during the summer months.) This provided a grand total of 2,062 hours. Divided by the 24 hours in a day, the volunteer units worked 85.9 days during the year.

Bayne, who is loud in his praise of the work of both volunteer units, said today that the work of the volunteer firemen is well known. However, such is not the case with the diaphanous unit.

The women, in addition to actually answering all alarms, maintain a telephone committee which

YWCA Extension Program Starts Here March 28

The newly organized Virginia Beach Extension Program of the Norfolk YWCA will hold a "get acquainted" desert and coffee for those interested in this new program on March 28 at 1:30 at the Waverly Hotel. The social will introduce new Virginia Beach enthusiasts to the YWCA and its activities and will precede the Y's first extension class to be offered at the Beach.

The first class will be a weight control class for those either 10 pounds over or 10 pounds under weight. It is designed to help the abnormal reach their normal weight. It will begin Friday, April 11, and will be held in the Waverly's ballroom.

This class has proven to be one of the most successful in the Y's diversified program. Organized only two months ago, over 50 persons participate in the class. The class is centered around proper dieting and exercising to normalize the weight. From five to 11 pounds are usually lost by new members after only three weeks of classes. Thin girls gain weight gradually and firmly with proper exercise and diet.

The classes are instructed by Mrs. Carl F. Barron, director of Health and Recreation at the YWCA. The weight control program runs for six weeks and medicals and memberships are required to participate.

Further information concerning the new extension program may be obtained by attending the public social March 28 at the Waverly.

The first organizational committee meeting was held March 5 at the home of Mrs. T. C. Berry on 22nd street. Those present were: Mrs. Barron, Miss Chesnut Russell, executive director of the Y; Mrs. M. L. Lowe, chairman of the health and recreation committee; Mrs. T. P. James, Mrs. W. J. Dickens, Mrs. C. N. Day, Mrs. Milton Ferrell and Mrs. Berry.

Pony League Meeting Tonight

Oceanside — Jim Lall, Recreation Director announced here today that a meeting will be held in the recreation office located in the Oceana Stadium, Thursday, March 13th at 8 p.m. to discuss the needs of a National Affiliated Pony Baseball League for boys 13 and 14 years of age.

The reason for this meeting is the demand for boys to participate 13 years of age. Criticism has been voiced among the number of fathers that the jump between Little League and Babe Ruth League baseball is too much for the 13-year-olds. The distance of the pitching mound from 42 feet to 60.5 feet and the baselines

The first annual Princess Anne County Eighth Grade basketball tournament is scheduled to get underway at Princess Anne High School Thursday afternoon.

The first day's schedule puts Virginia Beach against Trails in the opening game starting at four o'clock. Linkhorn Park plays Bay-side at 5 p.m.; Woodstock faces Shelton Park at 7 p.m. and Kempsville meets Oceana at 8:30 p.m.

Woodstock is undefeated in regular season play and rules a slight favorite on the face of its record. Linkhorn Park and Virginia Beach are other strong teams rated just behind Woodstock.

If form prevails Virginia Beach and Linkhorn Park should meet in a second round game on Friday. Play continues through Saturday when the finals are scheduled to be played.

Local Swimming Star Out With Broken Leg

Johnny Atkinson, a threat for the 200-yard swimming championship of the State of Virginia, has been eliminated from competition after a fall on the ice that left him with a broken leg. It was learned through his father, Frank V. Atkinson of Virginia Beach.

Young Atkinson, a student at the Augusta Military Academy, twice in one day swam the 200-yard distance in times below the record of two minutes 18 seconds for the State event.

He had been tagged as the man to beat this year in the State Competition which comes later in the year. He had previously made times of 2 minutes 15 seconds and two minutes and 14 seconds.

Details of the accident that removes young Atkinson from competing in the State swimming meet were not learned. It was caused by a fall on the ice on the campus of the school.

TVDC Decides Against More Territories

Norfolk, Va.—A committee here today recommended against enlarging the Tidewater Virginia Development Council's area of service to embrace adjacent territories in Eastern North Carolina and southern Maryland.

Sidney S. Kellam of Princess Anne County, former head of Virginia's Department of Conservation and Development and chairman of the study committee, said the action was unanimous.

Both Maryland and North Carolina sections had evidenced interest in becoming members of TVDC. The industrial development council is Virginia's largest regional industrial promotion agency.

Committee action was predicted on several influencing factors, Kellam said.

World War Two Veterans Will Aid Italian Town

Veterans of the 509th Infantry Battalion who served in Italy during World War II have adopted "Operation Pincelino" to aid a town where they were stationed during the war, according to Albert V. Crosby Jr., of Virginia Beach, a member of the veteran's group.

The idea for "Operation Pincelino" came to a former member of the battalion when he revisited the town last year, according to Crosby. The visit in 1957 of M. A. Goodspeed Jr. indicated that poverty was rife in the little town of Pincelino.

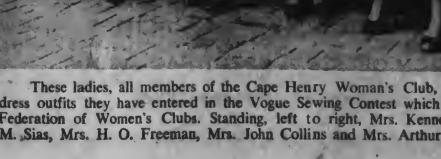

Upon his return to the United States Goodspeed contacted former members of the 509th Infantry Battalion and suggested the idea for "Operation Pincelino" to aid the people of that town who had done so much for the American group during World War II.

"Operation Pincelino" is an old clothing drive among surviving members of the 509th Infantry Battalion. Members of the group have been asked to send old clothing to an address in Washington, D. C. When the clothing is received it will be packaged for mailing to the people of Pincelino, Italy.

Goodspeed also notified surviving members of the Army group that the 1958 reunion would be held in Washington. He suggested that any old clothing for the drive might be brought to Washington at reunion time.

"Operation Pincelino" also coincides with the 15th anniversary for the tour of duty served by the 509th Infantry Battalion in Pincelino.

The MIXING BOWL.. IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palates and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

CHICKEN, GARDEN STYLE

2 to 2½ pound chicken, cut up
2 tablespoons shortening
Salt and pepper
¼ cup sliced onion
1 clove garlic, minced
¼ cup chopped carrots
Brown chicken in shortening. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Remove chicken from skillet. Sauté onion and remaining ingredients in skillet until lightly browned. Stir in ketchup and remaining ingredients. Add chicken. Simmer, covered, 45-60 minutes or until tender. Makes 4-5 servings.

To Prepare Nutritious Liver
Few cuts of meat pack as potent a nutritional punch as liver. Fortunately, teamed with all this food value is plenty of fine flavor.

"But my family doesn't like liver," you say.

Could it be that it's because you haven't learned to prepare it with the same imagination and skill that you prepare other meats?

Learning to fix the variety cuts of meat—liver, kidneys, heart, tongue sweetbreads—is an art, but an art easily acquired.

Start with this trio of tempting ways to prepare liver. Beef, pork, lamb or veal liver can be used. Beef is the most commonly marketed; pork, the most economical and in these recipes, certainly quite acceptable. Remember to peel or trim the membrane from the liver before cooking.

All three of these recipes take their cue for fine flavor from the ketchup bottle. All three come to us from the test kitchens of the world's largest processors of the rich, crimson tomato-based condiment.

"Our impartial panel—many of whom routinely ignored liver on the menu—gave these three liver recipes rave notices," Lila Jones, head of the Heinz Home Economics Department wrote.

Liver Patties call for seasoning ground liver with tomato ketchup, grated American cheese, green pepper and minced onion. Bread crumbs and an egg help you mold the mixture into hamburger-like patties. A wrapping of bacon holds them in shape during broiling and is a crisp, savory garnish.

Liver Patties
1 pound liver
¼ cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup
¼ cup finely grated process American cheese
1 egg, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
2 tablespoons minced onion
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
6 slices bacon

Heat oven to 400°F. (moderately hot). Cook liver in boiling, salted water until pink color disappears; drain. Finely grind liver; combine with bread crumbs and next 7 ingredients. Shape into 6 patties; wrap each with strip of bacon; fasten with toothpick. Place on rack in baking pan. Bake 30 minutes or until done. Turning once. Makes 6 servings.

A Liver Loaf served with a salad of peaches or apricots and creamed peas, green beans or Brussels sprouts, makes a meal balanced in nutrition, flavor and color. Ground lean pork is combined with the chopped liver in this recipe. This not only rounds out the flavor, but it helps hold the loaf together. Bread crumbs, eggs and ketchup act as additional binder. The ketchup adds a richness of flavor, too.

Liver Loaf
1 pound liver
¼ cup water
¼ pound ground lean pork
1 cup soft bread crumbs
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1 medium onion, chopped
¼ cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup
1 tablespoon Heinz Vinegar
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Heat oven to 350°F. (moderate). Simmer liver 5 minutes in water; drain; chop. Combine with remaining ingredients. Press into greased loaf pan (8½" x 4½" x 2½") or 6 custard cups. Bake 1 hour for loaf; 30 minutes for custard cups. Let stand a few minutes; loom from pan with spatula or knife; unmold. Garnish with parsley. Makes 6 servings.

From the Near East comes this recipe. Called Dolma Rice it combines diced liver, rice, dried currants and chopped walnuts; sautes them with piquant tomato ketchup and wraps them in tender-crisp cabbage leaves. Stuffed cabbage and grape leaves are considered delicacies in the countries of the southeastern Mediterranean. When you try this recipe, you'll understand the enthusiasm.

Dolma Rice
¾ pound liver, diced
¾ cup chopped walnuts
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup water
¼ cup rice
¼ cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup
¼ cup dried currants
¼ teaspoon salt
4 cabbage leaves
Lightly brown liver and walnuts in butter. Combine with remaining ingredients except cabbage in top of double boiler; bring to boil over direct heat. Cover; cook, stirring occasionally, over boiling water 45 minutes or until rice is tender.

Serve hot in cabbage leaves, cooked just until tender. Makes 4 servings.

Get busy now, and do a little cooking with Ketchup, and then you can send your entry, along with your name and address and the neighborhood name of Heinz Ketchup bottle, to Heinz Ketchup, P.O. Box 57, Mount Vernon 10, N.Y.

New York. Entries must be received by the judges not later than April 10, 1958 to be eligible.

Bye - now - Hope you win! The U.S. Navy is supervising the entire Spanish base construction program which includes four U.S. Air Force bomber bases and a Navy air-sea base.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

National Library Week, March 16 - 22

"Wake Up and Read," the slogan for National Library Week, March 16 through March 22, 1958, has a very real significance for Virginians. It is all very well to emphasize the value of reading, but where are the residents of the sixty-four counties (one-third of our population) without public libraries going to get the books? Only the wealthy can afford to buy enough books to satisfy the needs of a lifetime. Most school libraries are woefully inadequate and ready access to them ends with graduation. It has been shown repeatedly that people do "Wake Up and Read" when books are made available to them. The answer lies in strengthening our existing libraries and in establishing new ones. Both State and Federal funds are available for this purpose if the requirements set by the State Library Board are met. The main purpose of State and Federal aid is to encourage large areas of service on the basis that the larger the unit the more economical is the operation, and the ensuing services more efficient.

The public library has been called "the People's University" because a good education may be secured there for the asking. It has also been called "the Arsenal of Democracy" because an informed public is the greatest force we have for preserving our liberties. At its best, the public library is much more than either of these terms implies. We are never going to make readers of everyone, but the modern public library has something to offer every person in a community. A farmer wants to know how to build a cattle guard so that he will not have to open and close gates whenever he leaves his premises; a businessman wants information about investments and market trends; a housewife wants to know how to hang pictures and to arrange her furniture attractively; parents need guidance in child care and teen-age psychology. The library has the answers! It is an open door to knowledge and a fuller life for everyone. Thomas Jefferson was aware of the importance of libraries when he wrote, "I have often thought that nothing would do more extensive good at small expense than the establishment of a small circulating library in every county."

Pony League

from 60 feet to 90 feet is far too great for the average 13-year-old advancing from the Little League to the Babe Ruth League; therefore the majority of 13-year-olds coming from the Little League spend the next year sitting on the bench.

The Pony League would be an in-between league of the Little League and the Babe Ruth League played on a diamond more suitable for the 13 and 14 year olds. The distance of the pitching mound would be 52 feet, and the base lines 75 feet. The playing rules for this league are the same as regulation baseball with a few modifications.

There are many pros and cons concerning the organizing of a Pony League since two Babe Ruth Leagues already exist in the Oceana-Virginia Beach area. Remember that each Babe Ruth League team must include a certain number of 13 year olds. A Pony League would definitely cause the majority of 13-year-olds in the Babe Ruth Leagues to want to play in the Pony League due to the size of the field and the age classification thus it could cause a shortage of 13 year olds for the already well organized Babe Ruth teams and do serious damage to these two leagues.

There are but a few of the items to be discussed at the meeting. Representatives from the Babe Ruth Leagues and Little Leagues of Virginia Beach and Oceana are invited to attend this meeting. Adults interested in organizing a Pony League are encouraged to attend this meeting.

tively new organization and needs time to consolidate its present efforts before its services can be extended.

Extension into Maryland and North Carolina would spread the council's operation, "proving to be imprudent and impractical." Secondly, variations in the State laws of Virginia, North Carolina and Maryland present barriers which can not be broached at the present time, he said.

Princess Anne Basketball Leagues

BLUE ANGELS WHIP LIONS IN OVERTIME

Kempville-The Oceana Blue Angels edged the Bayside Lions Tuesday night, March 4 in an extra period, 48-42, to capture the Princess Anne Ocean County basketball championship.

Trailing 42-41 with 25 seconds left in the overtime affair, Venable sank a one-handed push shot to clinch the title for the Angels.

Duane Brinelling set the pace for the losers with 21 points, while Larry Walbaum tossed in 16 markers for the Angels.

The Lions lead 30-26 at the outset of the fourth period, but the Angels picked up eleven points, tying the score and sending the game into an overtime.

OCEANA AND VIRGINIA BEACH WIN COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIPS

Oceana-The Oceana Jets and the Virginia Beach Sports won the Princess Anne Ocean County Junior Basketball Championships, respectively. The Jets defeated the Diamond Springs Royals, 32 to 15 in the Midget League, and the Sports defeated the Bayside Packards, 41, to 29 in the Junior League.

These wins gave both clubs an undefeated season in league play. Both clubs won the first and second halves in their respective leagues; therefore, making no playoff necessary and giving their teams the automatic county championships.

Members of the Oceana Jets are Larry Bell, Wayne Welde, Stephen Mayo, Douglas Acherman, Robert Hogue, Danny Coffin, Samuel Tillit, Mike Gaffagher, Everett Horton, and Bobby DeMille.

The team was sponsored by the Oceana Recreation Committee, managed by Cmdr Robert Hogue, and coached by Jack Berry.

The team was sponsored by the Virginia Beach Sports Club and coached by Dicky Munford. BLUE ANGELS, PRINCESS ANNE CHAMPS

Oceana - The Oceana Blue Angels emerged champions of the Princess Anne Ocean County (double elimination) Basketball Tournament last Tuesday evening when they defeated the Bayside Lions in an overtime, 43 to 42. The regulation game ended in a 37-37 deadlock.

The Lions played the last four minutes of the regulation game with only four players. Luffier Senter and Buchanan, Lions, both fouled out with 4 minutes remaining in the game. The Lions at this point lead the Blue Angels 25-24.

Larry Walbaum, was the big gun for the Blue Angels scoring 21 points. Six of his 21 came in the overtime. Bayside's loss confirms the old saying, "Five men will defeat four men anytime in the game of basketball."

Individual and team trophies were presented to the winning team by Jim Lail, Princess Anne County Recreation Director, immediately following the game.

Virginia Beach—Richard Lawrence Staunton of 212 24th St. died in a Norfolk hospital Sunday at 3:35 p.m. after a long illness.

He was a native of Galena, Ill., and had been a resident of Virginia Beach for the past 10 years. He is survived by his wife, Mary Lindholm Staunton of Virginia Beach; two sons, L. R. Staunton of Norfolk and L. A. Staunton of Virginia Beach, and one sister, Mrs. R. Terry of Levittown, Pa.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at 2 o'clock p.m. at the Macetas Funeral Home Virginia Beach by the Rev. Paul A. Plawin, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Norfolk, Virginia. Burial was in Rosewood Me-is put to work when a fire reaches major proportions. This committee personally calls all members of the volunteer unit to assure that they have notice of the alarm.

While at the fire scene, members of the woman's group serve coffee and milk to the firefighters, administer first aid if it is needed and make shuttle runs to the fire station if additional small equipment is needed.

The organization, formed two years ago as a social group, soon outgrew its original purpose and today serves a definite and vital purpose in the city's firefighting organization.

Mrs. Floyd G. Jones is the group's president. Other officers include Mrs. Anderson Holland, vice president; Mrs. Jack Ballard, secretary; Mrs. Gerlad A. Straker, treasurer, and Mrs. Wade Morse, chaplain.

The men's volunteer unit is headed by Joseph Zagan. Other officers include Wade Morse, vice president; Anderson Holland, secretary; Clyde Bell, treasurer, and Jack Ballard, chaplain.

The volunteer unit, which pays its own expenses and those of the women's auxiliary, will launch a fund-raising drive here in July. Honorary membership will be sold to local business and hotel operators.

It costs approximately $150 each to outfit members of the volunteer firefighting unit, Bayne said. Each of the firemen is provided with a hard hat, waterproof coat and pants, rubber boots, gloves and a smoke mask.

These items are carried in the automobiles of the individuals, who stand ready at a moment's notice, regardless of the weather, to step in and protect you and yours from the ravages of fire, which yearly inflicts greater damage than any other peril.

New York, N. Y.—From thousands of entries in the national Brand Name Retailer-of-the-Year Competition, including 25 retailing categories, Fuel, Feed and Building Supplies Corporation, 10th and Pacific, Virginia Beach, Va., has been selected to receive a Certificate of Distinction in the Hardware Stores category of the 10th Annual Competition, sponsored by Brand Name Foundation, Inc., New York City.

Notice of the award was telegraphed today to J. M. Jordan Jr., president of Fuel, Feed and Building Supplies Corp., by Henry E. Abo, president of the Brand Name Foundation, Inc., New York City. Abo congratulated the firm upon receiving this award for outstanding presentation of manufacturers' brands during 1957. Mr. Jordan will receive the award during a dinner honoring the nation's leading merchants to be held at the Grand Ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria on April 16, 1958. Attending this banquet will be more than 1,500 business and civic leaders, and the dinner will climax the nation-wide celebration of the Brand Name Week, April 13-20. This firm was chosen by a panel of judges composed of the top award winners in the prior year's competition. In 24 of the 25 classifications of the competition, one Plaque and a maximum of four Certificates of Distinction were awarded. 15 Gasoline Service Station category, one Plaque and a maximum of 14 Certificates may be awarded.

To select the winners, the panel carefully examined comprehensive presentations of their 1957 activities submitted by nearly 600 retailers who had been selected as "Finalists" and given an opportunity to compete for the awards. These "Finalists" had been screened from entries coming from 47 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Canada.

In judging, the panel's decisions were made primarily on the basis of the firm's 1957 brand advertising and promotional campaigns, as well as their education of customers.

There will also be interesting special tours to New York City points of interest.

Mobile X-Ray Unit to Visit Virginia Beach March 20

The mobile X-ray unit of the Princess Anne and Norfolk counties Tuberculosis Association will be at Virginia Beach, on the 300 block of 31st St., on Thursday, March 20 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to give free chest x-rays.

All adults who have not had a chest x-ray within the past six months or longer are urged to take advantage of this free service, especially those forty years of age and older. At the present time the highest incidence of the disease is in the over forty group. The following excerpts from an article presenting the most up-to-date opinion of authorities in the field of x-ray (in THIS WEEK, February 23, 1958) should be reassuring to those who have been alarmed by the recent scare articles on x-ray.

"The amount of x-ray your body can stand without serious damage is so high that you have virtually nothing to worry about as far as you yourself are concerned, short of an atomic explosion. But a small amount reaching the reproductive cells could produce defects in one's descendants. When you pass the child-bearing period, all experts agree that you have nothing to fear from x-rays.

"Beyond any question, a good many of the 100 million people a year who get x-rays have been frightened. Beyond any question, a certain number of them are already refusing x-rays that would be helpful in diagnosing their illnesses.

"It should be borne in mind that in 1956 70,000 new active cases of TB were discovered by chest x-ray. The consensus is that chest x-rays, when properly handled, should cause the patient no concern.

"There have been over two full generations since the discovery of x-rays, yet our hereditary make-up has not undergone a striking or sudden change for the worse. In other words, doctors want you to use common sense in regard to x-rays. That's what they do themselves."

If undetected too long, TB is as deadly as ever. Don't take a chance on yourself or your family. Get a free chest x-ray on March 20.

Speech and Hearing Survey To Be Conducted in Schools

The Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults (Easter Seal Society), in cooperation with the Princess Anne County and the Virginia Beach school system, will conduct a speech and hearing survey in all 19 schools of the county and Virginia Beach. The survey will take place on March 19, 20 and 21, 1958.

The arrangements and preliminary studies have been made by Mr. Frank Taylor, visiting teacher, and a society representative. It is estimated that a minimum of 400 children will be tested during the three-day period. Professionally trained speech and hearing therapists employed by the society will conduct the testing.

This survey was made possible through the contributions made to the society during last year's Easter Seal campaign. Funds collected this year will be used to determine the possible need for a fulltime speech and hearing therapist in the county, and to help pay the salary of the therapist during the coming year. It was pointed out by one of the Society's speech therapists that approximately 5 to 10 per cent of school age children have speech deviations serious enough to need speech correction.

Many of these speech defects will be due to hearing impairment. If the national average holds true for Princess Anne County, out of the 19,000 school children, a minimum of 950 children could be expected to have some type or speech defect; however, because of the preliminary studies which have been made only half that number will be tested. The local chapter of the State Society urges everyone to support the present Easter Seal Appeal, and to join the festivities this Saturday, March 15th, when a parade will be sponsored by the Kiwanis Club with the proceeds going to the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Chapter. The parade will be held at 31st and Atlantic Avenue at 10:30 a.m.

WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" IN ACTION!
All celery planted same time. Only difference: celery at left was band sprayed once with Vegadex at planting. Results like this, last year, saved commercial growers from $20 to $90 an acre on hand-weeding costs.

THIS NEW WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" CAN SAVE YOU $20 TO $90 PER ACRE IN VEGETABLE CROPS

It's Vegadex, and it kills weeds for you in a new way. You spray it only once—at planting time. Vegadex forms an invisible chemical blanket over your soil that smothers weeds. Pesky annual grasses—even tough weeds like purslane and henbit—sprout, touch the "blanket," and die. Because weeds seldom appear, Vegadex can cut labor costs for hand weeding as much as $90 per acre. Your vegetables come through unharmed, with no weeds to fight them for sunlight, water and plant food. And Vegadex won't "build up" in your soil, even if you spray each time you plant.

Before you plant your next crop, drop by your nearest Monsanto Farm Chemicals Dealer. He'll tell you how Vegadex adds extra profits to every acre of vegetable you harvest.

Make sure you're spraying right. Ask your Monsanto Dealer about the special offer on the SPRAY-BLANKET that accurately measures the amount of spray you'll apply per acre.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC GROWERS
Vegadex is made for spinach, cauliflower, kale, cauliflower, rutabaga, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, broccolini, asparagus, cabbage, cauliflower, snap beans, lima beans, soybeans, garden beans, radishes, lettuce, sweet corn, field corn.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

VETS GET $362,500.000 IN DIVIDENDS

Veterans Administration announced this week that the annual dividends to be paid World War I and II insurance policyholders next year will amount to $362,500,000 and that payment will be made as near as possible to the 1958 anniversary date of each policy.

The post-Korea type of GI insurance is not included because it is non-participating and the law does not provide for dividends on those policies.

According to the announcement, the two dividend declarations are: 1. National Service Life Insurance which originated in WW I, $249,000,000 payable to about 5,000,000 policyholders.

2. U.S. Government Life Insurance which originated in WW I, $113,500,000 payable to about 300,000 policyholders.

For policyholders who do not state in writing how they want their regular dividends handled, the VA is required by law to set up a dividend credit record to their insurance accounts and to use the credits to pay premiums as they come due, if not paid on time by the policyholders. Unused dividend credits draw interest compounded annually until withdrawn by the policyholder or are paid out at maturity according to the wishes of the policyholder.

Generally speaking, the 1958 dividend will be about the same as paid in 1957, except that term insurance policyholders will probably receive slightly more because of more favorable mortality and disability experience.

Thomas A. Moore, Norfolk Service Officer for the Division, at 203 City Hall Avenue, will be pleased to assist and advise any person concerning veterans' affairs. Moore visits the Community House, 16th and Arctic, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. only, on the second and fourth Thursdays each month.

VETERANS ADMINISTRATION REPORTS 9% CUT IN ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS

A 9% per cent cut in administrative costs during the last 10 years, totaling more than a quarter of a billion dollars, was reported by Veterans Administration.

VA said the reduction amounts to $152,125,000 from $167,250,000 in fiscal 1947 to $152,125,000 in fiscal 1957.

Involved in the reduction, according to VA, are sharp drops in number of administrative offices and personnel.

Administrative offices have been cut from 1,137 to 345 and administrative personnel, from 12,000 to 28,000 over the 10-year period.

VA said the reduction in administrative offices has reduced work-load, improved service, mechanization of administrative operations, greater economy and productivity of employees, and lower Congressional appropriations.

At the end of World War II, VA had to expand its staff to handle the avalanche of applications for benefits that resulted from the greatest mass demobilization of armed forces in the history of the nation. Since then, VA said, the work-load has receded to its current level, requiring fewer administrative offices and considerably less administrative personnel.

Q—I hold a World War II GI insurance policy. When is the end of my dividend period, could I arrange to receive monthly payments for the rest of my life?

A—No. You may, however, choose either a lump-sum payment, or payments over a specified period ranging from three to 30 years.

Q—I want to change the beneficiaries of my GI insurance policy. Must I notify my present beneficiaries that I am making a change?

A—No. Your present beneficiaries need not be notified.

Q—I understand that special restorative training is available under the War Orphans Education program to handicapped young men and women in need of it. Does this restorative training also include medical care?

A—No. Special restorative training does not include medical care. It does include special courses, such as braille reading, learning, and the like—designed to help a person overcome his handicap so that eventually he can take regular training at school.

VETS COMPENSATION

When disabled veteran dies he frequently has accumulated little and he often leaves his family to pass through a period of adjustment of funds to meet even the most modest of living requirements.

The survivors of deceased veterans can speed up consideration of their applications for compensation or pension if when filling their claims to the VA they follow the four suggestions listed below:

1. If the veteran's death certificate is indefinite as to the cause of death, a certificate should be obtained from the attending physician showing his dates of treatment and cause of death. If the veteran had been suffering from service-connected disabilities which helped to bring about his death, it is very important that the physician include these disabilities as secondary causes of death. A complete prepared death certificate could mean to the widow the difference between a few dollars a month and a minimum of $125.00 a month.

2. A widow should be prepared to furnish the date and place of her marriage to the veteran. If she or the veteran had been previously married she should tell along, if possible, death or divorce records to show dissolution of such marriage or marriages.

3. All birth or baptismal certificates of minor children, if furnished, if a child had been adopted, a copy of the court order should be provided.

4. If dependent parents are filing claims, they should be ready with a birth or baptismal certificate of each deceased, showing the names of both parents.

Thomas A. Moore, Norfolk Service Officer for the Division, at 203

City Hall Avenue, will be pleased to assist and advise any person concerning veterans' affairs. Moore visits the Community House, 16th and Arctic, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. only, on the second and fourth Thursdays each month.

An easy-stage method of converting GI term insurance to permanent plans is available to any of the 3,000,000 World War II veterans who cannot afford to convert the full amount of their term policies.

Veterans Administration said the law and VA regulations permit these term policyholders to convert as little as $1,000 the first time and then any amount thereafter they wish in multiples of $500.

By converting $1,000 a year for 10 years, the amount of insurance in permanent plan insurance within a decade, VA pointed out. Annual dividends may be used in the process to reduce the cash outlay to the policyholder at the time of conversion, the agency said.

The decision to convert is for each policyholder to make based on his need for present and future life insurance, his ability to pay premiums and his family status, VA said.

In some cases, the agency added, term insurance is preferable to others, permanent plans are indicated.

Permanent plan policies available to World War II term policyholders who wish to convert under this easy-stage method are ordinary life, 20-year life, 30-year life, 40-year endowment, and 50-year endowment at age 60, and endowment at age 65.

VA said the premium rates for the permanent plans are higher than for the term policies at the same age of issue, but they remain static. Term policy premium rates, on the other hand, increase every five years until they may become prohibitive at advanced ages, VA said.

The agency added that permanent plans have certain values which term policies do not have. These include a loan value, an surrender value and an extended insurance value. The latter will keep a policy in force automatically for a stipulated period after the policyholder has failed to pay premiums.

A new atomic medical test is helping provide better treatment for patients with anemia and stomach disorders in Veterans Administration hospitals, VA said.

Dr. W. E. Chamberlain, chief of the VA atomic medicine program in Washington, D.C., said doses of radio-active vitamin B-12 are administered to patients and traced to find whether the vitamin is absorbed by the body.

The procedure is useful in anemia from other anemia and in iron deficiency treatment for patients who have had stomach surgery, he said.

Dr. Chamberlain said tracing is done with an instrument called a scintillation counter, which defects radio-activity and is similar to a Geiger counter.

After treatment with vitamin B-12 or liver extract has been given, the blood of these patients usually returns to normal, he said, and the usual diagnostic blood tests are no longer helpful.

Dr. Chamberlain said the new test is used to show whether the patient has pernicious anemia and needs to be maintained for life on medication.

The test is a two-stage process. Dr. Chamberlain said if an initial dose of radio-active B-12 is not absorbed by the patient's body, a second dose is given along with "intrinsic factor," a substance secreted in normal human stomachs which enables this vitamin to be used.

If the second dose of the vitamin is absorbed, the patient has pernicious anemia, Dr. Chamberlain said.

He said for patients who have had part of the stomach removed by surgery, the radio-active B-12 test shows whether enough stomach function remains to produce a substance necessary to prevent anemia or whether the substance must be given as medication.

A new test and similar modification of it are in use at VA hospitals that have radioisotope services.

Although use of modern tuberculosis drugs has developed drug-resistant strains of TB microbes, Veterans Administration studies show no significant increase in new infections from this source, the agency said.

Dr. Martin M. Cummings, director of VA research in Washington, D.C., said modern treatment measures using several drugs in combination help prevent resistant microbes from developing in drug-treated TB patients.

Hospitalization of TB patients prevents the disease from spreading to others and causing new infections against which the TB drugs may be ineffective, Dr. Cummings said.

To check the extent of drug-resistant TB infection, laboratory studies of drug-resistant TB patients were performed on nearly 2,000 patients admitted at VA hospitals between September 1955 and August 1957, he said.

Among these veterans, all previously untreated for TB, the number of drug-resistant strains was about 3 per cent, Dr. Cummings said.

He said this may be compared with 26 per cent of infections found resistant to streptomycin in a study of comparable patients in VA hospitals in 1953.

Dr. Cummings said PAS and isoniazid were not included in the 1952 study because these drugs were not in wide use for treatment of TB at that time.

Q—If my son goes to school under the War Orphans Education program, will VA pay his tuition as well as a monthly living allowance?

A—No. Under the law, VA makes only payment for each month of training. This covers the living of the parent or guardian of this must come all training expenses, such as tuition and books. VA does not make separate payments to the school.

MARCH 24 SET FOR POULTRY SCHOOL

All poultrymen in Princess Anne and Norfolk Counties are invited to attend a Bi-County Poultry School at the Great Bridge Presbyterian Church on March 24 from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

This all day school is sponsored by the Agricultural Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce. This is the first year that they have endeavored to do this. We hope that this one-day Poultry School will be very satisfying to our Poultry Producers. Upon enrolling your reservations back to the Agricultural Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, arrangements will be made for us to have dinner together at the meeting place. However, let me urge you to inform the committee of your intentions.

A real outstanding program has been outlined for the poultry producers. Mr. Dan Kite, Extension Agricultural Engineer at VPI, is going to discuss "Housing for Broilers and Layers." He will discuss building new houses and converting old buildings to poultry uses. Mr. Denver Bragg, Associate Extension Poultry Husbandman, will discuss the "Cage System of Housing vs. the Floor System of Housing of Layers." This is a highly controversial argument between many of our poultry producers here in the county. In the afternoon, one of our own poultry producers here in the county, Carlton Etheridge, will discuss his experiences in the poultry business. I think that this can be one of the best parts of the day-long program. Carlton has some of the best records on cost of production that I have ever seen. He really knows his birds. The last speaker on the program is one of our new Poultry Husbandmen, Mr. R. L. Wesley. Mr. Wesley is going to discuss "Quality Eggs from the Nest to the Table." This is a subject that all of us are going to have to pay attention to whether we want to or not if we are going to stay in the poultry business. To make a one-day program, 2:30 to 3 there will be a panel discussion. Each of the speakers of the program will sit on this panel and the audience may throw questions of any kind at them.

I hope sincerely that you will be able to make your plans accordingly. Husband and wife come together and learn together the newest things in the poultry business. If you are in the business you owe it to yourself to find out everything that you can about your business. Just come, good ideas found at the school will be well worth your time.

COUNTY WINNER IN FOODS CONTEST

Six Virginia counties will receive trophies in recognition of their outstanding 12-month food program during the last year. The counties are: Princess Anne, top in the southeast district; Westmoreland, northeast district; Amelia, east central district; Campbell, west central district; Loudoun, northern district; and Tazewell, southwest district. The trophies are furnished by the National Plant Food Institute of Washington, D.C., which cooperates with the VPI Agricultural Extension Service, in the program. Runners-up in the program, which is an educational effort aimed at better forage crop production on Virginia farms, are: Southeast, Norfolk, Brunswick, and Greenville; northeast, Gloucester and Essex; east central, Charlotte and Goochland; west central, Bedford and Patrick; northern, Prince William and Culpeper; and southwest, Wythe and Grayson.

Seventy counties participated in the 1957 contest. A partial list of the counties that received trophies and activities to promote pasture and forage crops includes 210 meetings, 71 tours, 208 seedling and fertilization demonstrations. More than 7,000 farmers attended these events. In addition, 240 exhibits of pastures and forage crops were displayed at county fairs, stock meetings, etc. Radio, TV and newspaper releases also were an important aid to the county program.

NEW ALFALFA WEEVIL CONTROL RECOMMENDATION

It's time to apply the granulated form of heptachlor to control the alfalfa weevil.

The granulated form of heptachlor is newly recommended this year. It should be applied during the first half of March, anytime before growth starts. The granulated form is especially recommended where the weevil is known to be a problem, or where spray equipment is not easily available. Use from 40 to 60 pounds of 2½% granulated heptachlor per acre.

The newly recommended control has several advantages over the spray treatment. It is applied before growth of alfalfa and/or weeds starts, thus eliminating toxic residues on the harvested crop and any possibility of toxic poisoning to honeybees. It is applied when equipment and labor are not tied up with other farm chores and when the alfalfa will not be damaged under the wheels of heavy equipment which is usually already on the farm. It gives reasonably effective control also for aphids, clover root curculio, and clover root borer.

The main disadvantage is the high cost of the insecticide. It will probably cost around $5.50 per acre for the one treatment of granulated heptachlor. However, where two or more spray treatments are needed, the cost of the spray is probably as much as the granulated heptachlor treatment.

METHOXYCHLOR DUST
RECOMMENDED FOR HORNFLY CONTROL ON COWS

Methoxychlor, applied as a dust treatment only, is being recommended now for control of hornflies on dairy cattle.

Methoxychlor sprays are not recommended for control of hornflies and other insect pests on dairy cattle. The insecticides in spray form can be applied in dairy barns as a residual treatment for the control of stable flies and houseflies.

The recommendation about methoxychlor dust follows the recent decision by the Food and Drug Administration that (1) no residue of methoxychlor is permitted in milk, but (2) there is no objection to the use of methoxychlor on dairy cows if the insecticide is applied so that no residue occurs in milk.

Studies have shown that when methoxychlor is properly applied as a dust treatment to only the backs of dairy cows, no residue of the insecticide occurs in milk. Such a dust treatment provides good control of hornflies, one of the most costly pests of dairy cattle.

Apply 1 tablespoonful of 50% methoxychlor powder to each animal, sprinkling it over the back and rubbing it lightly into the hair. This treatment will provide control of hornflies for about three weeks. However, it will not control lice, other biting flies, the house fly, or ticks.

FORT STORY TELLINGS

PORT STORY MEN TRAVEL TO TALENT SHOW

A talent show to be held at Fort Story on Sunday, March 16, will include six men from Fort Story.

According to Story Special Services, the show is a "warm up" session for a competition show to be held on Sunday, March 16. All persons participating in the show this Sunday will be eligible for the competitive event.

Attending from Fort Story will be a trio consisting of PFCs Paul Lockwood, Clarence Lowman and Joseph Henderson, all of the 154th Transportation Company, Private First Class Nicholas Meade, a vocalist from the 54th Transportation Company and dancer PFC Wadell Anderson of the 54th Transportation Company will also attend.

Lieutenant Albert H. McNeil will sing as will Specialist Third Grade Charles Davis of Headquarters Company and his trio. Winners from the Fort Story competition will be eligible for Second Army contest to be held at Fort Meade, Maryland on Thursday, May 8th.

NEW UNIT ORGANIZED AT STORY

A new and distinctly different unit was officially organized Monday, March 3 in a colorful ceremony at Fort Story. Designated the 54th Transportation Platoon, the new unit is designed to operate the BARC, the Army's new 100-ton amphibious vehicle.

Lieutenant George E. Woods Jr., Fort Story commanding officer, officially announced the organization of the 54th and then presented the unit to Lieutenant Colonel John Alford, commanding officer of the 14th Transportation Battalion to which the platoon will be attached.

The platoon, under the command of Lieutenant Richard Alvey, has been made up of elements of the now de-activated 54th Transportation Company.

The BARC (Barge Amphibious Recovery-Cargo) has been in the development stage for several years. The first five "K" models underwent intensive tests on the Fort Story beach, and were changed several times as deficiencies were noted. The first four operational models were delivered to the Cape Henry post on Thanksgiving Day. The huge craft moves on land on 9 1/2 foot high tires each propelled by a diesel engine. It is capable of making 7 knots in water. The only BARCs in existence are located at Fort Story.

GENERAL VISITS FORT STORY

Some 150 members of the 54th Transportation Company gathered at the Fort Story Post Theater last week for a talk by Major General Rush B. Lincoln Jr., commanding general of Fort Story and the Transportation Training Command.

General Lincoln told the unit, which will go to Harmon Air Force Base, Newfoundland on March 23, what to expect during their northern trip.

You have a difficult task ahead of you, said the general, and we feel that you will do an outstanding job.

According to General Lincoln to the theater and on an "on-the-job" inspection of other units going north were Colonel George E. Woods Jr., commanding officer of Fort Story; Col. James C. Conine, Deputy Post Commander; Lt. Col. E. A. McCarthy Jr., Chief of Staff and Lt. Col. John C. Alford, Commander of the 14th Transportation Battalion.

Other units which will go on northern supply missions are the 411th, the 158th and the 569th, all of which are transportation companies.

NEW EXECUTIVE OFFICER FOR HEADQUARTERS COMPANY

A Fort Story Lieutenant, Eugene R. Lantillo, was reassigned recently from the 10th Battalion's 54th Transportation Company to the Headquarters and Headquarters Company of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C". He holds the position of executive officer within his new company.

Lieutenant Lantillo is a native of Roslindale, Mass., where his mother is currently living. He attended Boston Latin School for six years and then went on to graduate from Harvard University in 1944.

The 22-year-old lieutenant was a platoon leader with the 154th Transportation Company last summer when that unit took part in Operation 573-East, a resupply mission to the Dew-Line outpost in the Arctic. Major Milton Le Gault, who commanded the company on the operation is Lieutenant Lantillo's commanding officer once again in his present capacity of commanding officer of Headquarters Company.

NEW U. S. - 54th TRANSPORTATION COMPANY

Orders published at Fort Story today announced the transfer of Captain George F. Schmalhofer from Headquarters of the 4th Transportation Terminal Command "C" to the 10th Transportation Battalion. Captain Schmalhofer is now the commanding officer of the 54th Transportation Company.

Captain Schmalhofer entered the Army in January, 1942 and took basic training at Camp Croft, South Carolina. He received a battlefield commission near Uncle, Germany in March of 1948.

He arrived at Fort Story in October and was assigned as Post Transportation officer. His arrival marked the third time he has been assigned to the Cape Henry post.

Captain Schmalhofer holds the Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Bronze Star, the Commendation Ribbon, the Presidential Citation and the Korean Presidential Citation in addition to other awards and decorations.

With the 569th, he will be engaged in preparing his company for a summer assignment in the Arctic handling vital supplies for military installations.

The captain and his wife are living at Fort Story.

MESS STEWARD WINS AGAIN, AGAIN AND AGAIN

An old hand at winning the Fort Story Best mess of the Month award has walked away with the title again.

Sergeant First Class Herbert L. Ripley, mess steward for the 461st Amphibious Truck Company was presented the Best Mess award for the month of February by Colonel George E. Woods Jr., post commander.

Before being transferred to the 461st, SFC Ripley was mess steward for the 54th Transportation Company where he won the monthly award numerous times and took it away from Fort Story on one occasion.

Besides being a mess steward extraordinaire, SFC Ripley is an old Army campaigner with five campaigns to his credit. He served with the occupation forces in Japan and Germany during World War II and served with the 21st Infantry Regiment, 24th Division during the Korean Conflict.

During his Korean tour, SFC Ripley was awarded the Korean Presidential Citation with Cluster, the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service against the enemy and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Present for the ceremony at the 461st Mess ("The Fighting Baranudas") besides Colonel Woods, were Lieutenant Colonel John C. Alford, Battalion Commander of the 14th Battalion; Lieutenant John L. Nolan, Company Commander; Lieutenant Bruce M. Bellamy, Battalion Supply and Logistics Officer; Chief Warrant Officer George B. Pierce, Post Food Supervisor and Lieutenant Joseph T. Crawley, Platoon Leader.

NEW NURSERY AT STORY

A ribbon was cut by Colonel George E. Woods Jr., post commander, officially opening a new Post Nursery at Fort Story on Friday, March 7th.

The new nursery will be open every Friday afternoon from 12:00 until 4:30 and will also be open every Thursday afternoon. Mrs. C. E. A. Morgan, president of the Officers' Wives Club, who will staff the nursery said that the nursery will also be open when special activities warrant such action.

Attending the official opening with Colonel Woods was Colonel James C. Conine, Deputy Post Commander; Major Joseph Carfagno, Assistant C-4 and Captain George W. Schaefer, Post Engineer; and also present were representatives of the Officers' Wives Club.

Art work for the walls was done by Mrs. Bruce H. Bellamy, and all decorations were designed by the members of the club. Construction was performed by the post engineers.

NEW S-4 OFFICER

Army Lieutenant Bruce M. Bellamy has been appointed Supply and Logistics Officer (S-4) of Fort Story's 14th Transportation Battalion. The appointment was made by the unit's commanding officer, Lieutenant Colonel John C. Alford.

Lieutenant Bellamy came to Fort Story a year ago after completing the Transportation Officer's Basic Course at Fort Eustis. After serving several months as Chief of the Information Services Division he became Operations Officer of the 461st Transportation Company.

In his new staff position Lieutenant Bellamy is responsible for all supply and movement functions within his battalion.

A native of Kansas City, Missouri, he is a graduate of Kansas State College in Radio and Television Production. He was employed at radio station KMAN in Manhattan, Kansas, before entering the Army.

GARDEN CLUB PLANS PROJECT

The regular meeting of the garden club was held on Tuesday, March 3 at the Aragona School. Mrs. John J. Finn, president, presided.

One of the most important items on the business agenda was the proposal of a plan to beautify the Virginia Beach Blvd. entrance to the Village. The proposal was accepted and Mrs. June Knox was appointed chairman of the Civic and Beautification Committee. The garden club hopes to work with other interested groups in the Village to accomplish this community project.

Immediate plans were made for a rummage sale to be held on March 22. This will be under the auspices of the Ways and Means committee, with Mrs. Earl Hansen, 1101 Spooner Road as chairman.

All donations will be gladly received at her home by March 17. The president also announced chairmanship of the publicity committee, Mrs. James W. Payne.

It was also decided that the club would send two delegates to the Judging School, sponsored by the Federation of Garden Clubs, to be held on March 18 through March 20.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, April 1 at Delhaven Nursery. An Easter program is being planned by Mrs. Edna Tate, chairman of the program committee.

BASEBALL IS IN THE AIR

As true as the robin foretelling spring are the baseball plans now being made by the county recreation committee.

Mr. John J. Finn, recreational representative for Aragona Village attended a meeting on Monday, March 3 at the Oceana Stadium. Plans were made for Little League Baseball in the county and for a meeting on March 11 with all of the adults interested in coaching for this coming season.

Mr. Jim Lall, director of county recreation announced that there will be county supervised recreation programs held this summer at the Aragona School playground every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Plans are also underway to start a dancing class for the youngsters of Aragona Village. Progress on this will be reported at a later date.

ST. GREGORY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH

The Women's Club of St. Gregory's held its regular meeting on Tuesday, March 3 at 8:00 p.m. at the Aragona School. Father Urban Lux spoke briefly to the members on the Lenten season and services. VFW POST PLANNED IN VILLAGE

Plans have been completed for the organization of a Veterans of Foreign Wars Post in Aragona Village. The project is headed by Mrs. Lila H. Ellison, 1317 Meadow Circle. Mrs. Ellison has secured authorization from the VFW of the United States, Department of Virginia and hopes to obtain enough applications to apply for a post charter. GIRL SCOUTS CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY

As all over the nation, plans are well underway in Aragona Village for celebration of the forty-sixth birthday of girl scouting.

Both Troops 476, under the leadership of Mrs. Velma Dwyer, and Troop 548, whose leader is Mr. G. W. Murden, plan a cook-out for this week.

Mrs. Glen Perkins, leader for Troop 533, announced that the girls are busily working on Easter presents to be presented to St. Mary's Home in Norfolk. Similarly, Troop 545 is preparing Easter baskets for the same home.

On March 15, at the Girl Scout rally at Princess Anne High School, Brownie Troop 219 under the leadership of Mrs. Bernice McCarty, will sing "God Ever Loving Father" and the Brownie "Hello" in the opening ceremony. Linda Beard has been chosen to present the Troop's contribution to the Jubilee Love Fund.

BOY SCOUT ACTIVITIES

A most successful meeting for leaders of Troop 378 was held on March 4 with Mr. Andrew Sobel from Scout headquarters as guest. A complete new program was mapped out at that time, following closely the national training and educational plans for all scout troops.

On Saturday, March 8, Mr. Raymond Rowley, Scout Master, accompanied all Patrol Leaders and St. Patrol Leaders on an overnight hike so that these boys will qualify to pass upon Tenderfoot tests. The boys accompanying Mr. Rowley were Scott Pharr, St. Patrol Leader, and James Stander, James Vaughan, William Williamson and Jack Pruitt.

The troop committee meeting was held on Tuesday, March 11. On Friday, March 7, Cubmaster, Carl Tignor, attended the round Table held for all Cub leaders in Kemperville.

Modern Watches Have Many Unusual Features

Quality watches today have so many new type features built into them that putting them into the hands of a qualified expert is a must, when they need inspection of precision, attention. The jeweler and the watch service expert in the jewelry store are those who possess this special ability because of their training and experience.

This was the observation today of Mr. H. E. Parks, of Barton's Jewelers, in bringing to this city the tenth annual "Watch Inspection Time" program, scheduled nationally March 10 to 22.

To help observe the industry-wide program, Mr. Parks has placed on exhibit in his store a colorful display indicating the skill and craftsmanship which go into the proper servicing of present-day watches and their intricate mechanisms.

The quality watch today—one with a jeweled-lever movement—not only looks new and different on the outside, but it's technically even more advanced on the inside. The self-winding watch, for instance, has been so perfected in recent years that you can compare it to a conventional watch the way an automatic drive compares to an old-style gearshift in a car. And the many other innovations in jeweled-lever watches make telling time today almost a wholly new experience.

Watchmakers, no matter where their business is located, are continually kept abreast of latest developments through technical bulletins about new watch features issued by the watch manufacturers.

They are therefore well qualified to service these advanced timepieces. And, of course, putting an older watch in top running order is a specialty of the watch technician. He is also the man to come to for advice on the difference between a jeweled-lever watch and other types.

The main aim of this national Inspection Time program, is to convey to people that the jeweler-watchmaker, with his knowledge of the timekeeping field, is the logical one to consult on any matter pertaining to the kind of watch a person buys.

As a member of the Hampton Roads Auxiliary of the Navy Relief Society, Mrs. Earl W. Hansen, 1101 Spooner Road is active on the committee making preparations for the Navy Ball of 1958.

Throughout the history of mankind runs the account of a double quest: Man searching for God... our restless eagerness to understand and please our Creator has paralleled the centuries of progress. God seeking Man... ceaselessly, patiently, His Love has lighted the ages, ever reaching toward our hearts, encompassing our souls. Yet no powerful lens ever devised will aid in this search. Our quest finds its consummation not beneath the lens of a microscope—but beneath the spire of a Church! What man does not recognize his own inability to cope with the complexities of life? There awaits you next Sunday in the Church of your choice the peace and assurance that generations have sought... the FAITH which unites Man and God.

City Council Places Strict Regulations on Salesmen

Strict regulations pertaining to door-to-door salesmen were voted by the Virginia Beach City Council at its meeting Monday afternoon.

In the future, individuals, companies or organizations desiring to canvass resort homes will be required to (1) obtain a permit from the chief of police, (2) produce evidence of the good moral character of the salesman or solicitor, (3) post a $2,500 bond for the performance of each solicitor or salesman, and (4) obtain a $50 license from the Commissioner of Revenue.

The new ordinance became effective with its passage Monday, according to City Attorney Roy Smith.

Acting on last night, City Councilman authorized City Treasurer Lewis E. Smith to borrow up to $250,000 on tax anticipation notes and agreed to make available free of charge red and white city tags for members of the city's volunteer fire department.

Council also approved two zoning changes recommended by the Planning Commission. One, on a tract of land at Norfolk and Pacific avenues, paved the way for the development of the shores of Lake Holly for a country club type motel and the other eliminates a business classification in the 2000 block of Cypress Ave. which is now being developed for residential use.

Supervisors Rule on Many Zoning Matters on Monday

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors Monday ruled on zoning matters enthusiastically and approved the application for a new fishing pier for the Lynnhaven area.

The board granted a use permit to a new residential development in Ocean View between Dupont Circle and Stratford Place.

Marine applications were among a number on which the board took action at its monthly session held in consideration of Planning Commission recommendations.

Also approved was an application of J. S. Smith for a use permit for a new building on a 10-acre tract near the old Laskin Road.

Smith had requested a change of zoning, but the Planning Commission said it was not necessary for the new range. Instead, the commission suggested the Board of Supervisors merely authorize a use permit.

A sweeping rezoning of a large part of Great Neck also received approval of the supervisors. The zoning change had been recommended by a subcommittee of the Planning Commission and generally were not opposed by property owners in the area.

The area affected by the change lies south of Atlantic Drive and on both east and west sides of Laskin Road.

Abolished under the new zoning will be the 1,000-square-foot lot, which the planners felt is too small for proper development of a residential area. They cited a number of community problems that arise in so-called "high density" population areas.

Among the other applications approved were one from the Lakes Memorial Methodist Church for a use permit to operate a church in Millman Manor and one from the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 3 for a lodge in the Greenwich area.

Downing Visits County in Bid for Congressional Seat

Thomas Downing, Democrat, visited Princess Anne County Wednesday and left with the endorsement of many Democratic leaders of the county and Virginia Beach.

Meeting informally with Democratic leaders in the courtroom of the Princess Anne County Court Wednesday morning, Downing spoke briefly of his candidacy and gave those present his word that if elected to Congress, he will devote his full energy to equal representation of the entire district.

Speaking extemporaneously Downing told his audience that he hoped to shake hands with everyone in the district between now and the July primary election. He said that he felt confident with the support of people like those in Princess Anne County he would win the nomination.

Downing promised effective representation of the district if he is elected to Congress stating that they may be some people who feel that the district has not been sufficiently represented in the past.

Several leaders expressed their endorsement of Downing's candidacy. Those included J. Alfred Etheridge, county treasurer; Ivan D. Mapp, county commissioner of the revenue; S. Paul Brown, James Snyder and James G. Darden, of the Board of Supervisors; Dr. Ira Hancock; Frank D. Tarrall Jr. and Ned Cato, candidates for the Virginia Beach City Council; Lewis E. Smith, Virginia Beach city treasurer; R. R. McChesney, Virginia Beach city sergeant; and William H. Phillips, city commissioner of the revenue.

Man Charged With Breakins

Richard B. C. Weaver, a 49-year-old unemployed cook, has been charged with breaking and entering two Virginia Beach business establishments, according to the Virginia Beach police.

The two breakins which resulted in Weaver's arrest were committed on the night of March 14. He is charged with first entering a back door to the Virginia Beach Sun-News office and later entering Harrell's Pharmacy on 31st street.

Police Chief Reeves E. Johnson said a small quantity of change was taken from the newspaper office while $206 and five bottles of paracetamol were taken from the pharmacy.

Weaver was to be given a preliminary hearing in police court Tuesday night. The investigation was conducted by Chief Johnson, William McCoslin, W. W. Davis and Henry Cappe.

Oceana's Cavaliers when they defeated Lynnhaven Park, 31 to 19 in an overtime thriller. Lynnhaven's Al Mallies sent the regulation game into overtime with a basket in the last five seconds of play to knock the score at 19 all. Oceana scored in the overtime period for the victory.

The Oceana leads were led by Marvin Taylor with 12 points against Lynnhaven Park. High points were made by the team's leading scorers, who were all seniors.

The Princess Anne County School Board voted Tuesday to increase the starting salary of bachelor-degree teachers by $200 per year with the increase becoming effective at the start of next fall's term.

This would bring the base salary to $4,300, identical to the rate approved by the Norfolk City Council for Norfolk public schools in 1956-57 term.

By a unanimous vote, the board adopted the new salary scale, which already had been contemplated in the county's record $3,376,176 budget for school operations beginning next September.

The budget has been passed on first reading by the Board of Supervisors. It comes up for second and final reading next Monday when the Supervisors meet at 10 a.m.

For the bachelor-degree teachers, the scale will be $3,200 to start, with a $4,700 maximum. Master's degree teachers would be $400 higher—$3,600-$4,900.

Norfolk County and Portsmouth School boards have not yet made public the salary scales they will propose in their new budgets.

Princess Anne School Board, Frank W. Cox told the board some clouds possibly have been removed from anticipated revenues from the federal and state governments.

"I believe we are reasonably firm on state funds," he said. "I don't think we are too far off on the amount we projected, we would receive from the state."

At the time the board last met, Feb. 18, the General Assembly still was in session and the budget had not become effective on July 1.

Even so, a proposed annual operating budget for Princess Anne was prepared and submitted to the Board of Supervisors. The amount budgeted as anticipated revenues from the state was based on continuance of the state appropriation formula then in effect.

Hunter Trials Slated Sunday

A thrilling display of horses and ponies jumping over a beautifully laid out course at Greenbrier Farms on Military Highway will take place this Sunday, March 23, at 2 p.m. with admission free to the spectators.

This event is being sponsored by the Tidewater Horse and Pony Association with Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn and Mrs. Richard B. Keeley as Co-Chairmen.

This is the first time since 1939 that a trial of this type has been held in this area. The Princess Anne Hunt Club use to hold their trials in the big field of Bay Colony with much success. It is hoped that the revival of this test of the hunter will remain an annual event. Many out of town and local entries are expected.

The four classes staged for the afternoon will be Pony Hunters, Junior Hunters, Working Hunters and Pairs of Ponies and Horses. Four ribbons will be awarded in each class with entry fees going to the winner on sweepstakes bases.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Blair of Richmond have accepted the judgeship.

Supervisors Honor Late E. I. Herrick

The late E. I. Herrick, former Kempsville District member of Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors, was honored Monday in a resolution adopted by his ex-colleagues.

The resolution was drawn "in recognition of and appreciation for his many years of active service in public offices, his steadfast adherence to the principles of good government and . . . his loyalty to the government, the United States and the Commonwealth of Virginia."

Herrick died March 1, the day he resigned from the Board of Supervisors because of ill health. His successor, Swindell Pollock, a Kempsville businessman, attended his first meeting Monday.

Steer Auction Aids Crippled

The Virginia Beach Kiwanis Club raised $450.00 on the auction sale of two cattle. One donated by Mr. O. A. Pinkston of the "Land of Promise Farms", Blackwater, Va. and the other by a group of citizens interested in the work of the local chapter of the Va. State Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The largest steer was purchased by Neptune's Restaurant, corner 31st Street and Atlantic Ave., Va. Beach. The other one by Mr. Clyde Bracy of Windsor, Va.

In attendance were the Va. Beach High School Band, Cousin Tibble of W.T.A.R.-TV fame and Mr. Peanut, through the courtesy of the Planters Nut & Chocolate Co., who distributed gifts to the children.

The local Boy Scouts assisted in the sale of Easter Seals, and Mr. Whit Seasons served as the auctioneer.

The Va. Beach Kiwanis Club wants to thank all those who helped make this affair such a success, and they hope to make this affair an annual event during Easter Seal month.

A telegram has been received from Mr. Walter Chapman, State Director, stating that the first survey of the schools at Virginia Beach and Princess Anne county began March 19th.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

"Sound Idea"—But—

Hap Wilson is a young fellow on our paper—and crazy about his daughter of his. But all of us have learned that kids can present problems.

"Every night I have to read her the same story," he complained. "The most stupid one in the book—about Billy Bumblebee!" So I finally recorded the story on a tape recorder. Showed her how to play it whenever she wants.

"Know what she says? That it sounds fine but that she can't sit on the machine's lap!" From where I sit, Hap had good intentions, but he has to understand his daughter's point of view, too. Many of us often make the same mistake. For instance, you may like tea, I prefer a glass of temperate beer. The important thing is that we both understand each other's point of view. There are two sides to every "story!"

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

The Successful Library Fund Drive

It has often been said, "if you want a job done give it to the ladies." We have just witnessed probably the finest example of how well a group of ladies can work together to get a job done. We, of course, have reference to the highly successful fund raising job to reach the dollars and cents goal to build a new public library in Virginia Beach.

The ladies really went to work on this project and never let up in their combined efforts to raise $40,000 for the project. The idea of a new public library was originated by the Junior Woman's Club and the drive for funds received a tremendous boost when the Princess Anne Woman's Club voted $10,000 toward the project.

Then followed donations by other women's groups and civic clubs throughout the City of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County. The response to requests by the ladies was gratifying and gave the drive the impetus it needed.

The drive was climaxed by "Operation Lining" which involved a telephone solicitation campaign that lasted two days. This telephone campaign brought the total amount funds up to the required $40,000. The library fund campaign was a success.

It would not be possible to give enough credit to the ladies of this community for the work they did and the enthusiasm with which they tackled the job of raising funds for the library. Of course, there were many public spirited individuals who helped in the fund raising drive. However, the lion's share of credit for the success of the library project must be given to the ladies, who continue to show the menfolk how to get the job done.

Our congratulations to all who helped the library.

A POEM FOR EASTER
Keep me from bitterness, dear God, it is so easy
To nurse harsh, bitter thoughts,
Each dull, dark hour.
Against self-pity Men of Sorrows, defend me
With Thy sweetness and Thy gentle power.
And out of all this hurt and pain and heartbreak—
Help me to reap new sympathy, a deeper, wiser pity
For those who bear a heavier cross with Thee.

Colonial Stores Issues Annual Report February 25

ATLANTA, GA.—Colonial Stores which was released February 25, by Chairman of the Board Russell B. Stearns and President Joseph Bell.

According to the report, during 1958 Colonial plans to open 40 new supermarkets and proceed with plans for development of a new distribution center in Alaska, groceries and frozen foods at Norfolk, Va. and enlargement of a grocery warehouse at Raleigh, N.C. During 1957, the company opened 30 supermarkets, enlarged or remodeled 10 and closed 19 small-volume stores. This year also saw enlargement of a grocery warehouse at Thomasville, Ga., and acquisition of a stores fixtures manufacturing plant at High Point, N. C. and a bakery at New York, Ohio.

At year-end the chain had 461 supermarkets in operation in 230 communities in 11 states East of Mississippi. The report contained the following comment on Colonial's approach to the use of trading stamps and non-food items. In the supermarkets, Trading Stamps, Despite a decline in enthusiasm for stamps reported by some supermarket operators, Colonial's trading stamp plan continued to prove "profitable and popular." The company's approach to trading stamps and non-food items, he is influenced by customer reactions to such plans and by their contribution to over-all profit.

Non-foods: "While Colonial's, and intends remain, primarily a food chain, the company has demonstrated its versatility in non-food retailing, and its capacity to meet consumer demand for such merchandise. The larger supermarkets being constructed today obviously present greater opportunities for expanding both food and non-food items." Studies Colonial is conducting "should reveal more precisely which non-food items can be handled most effectively by supermarkets in terms of space requirements and profit potential."

According to the report, "the most urgent desire of every food retailer... is to improve operating efficiency and productivity" as continuing increases in operating costs take place.

Sand Sculpturing Being Taught by Art Association

By Kay Doughtie Sewell
"A hole is to dig," allegedly. But it wasn't quite as simple as all that for a group of children who gathered on the sands at the foot of 32nd Street at 10 a.m. Saturday. Not after they had dug about a dozen holes, and then poured in cement.

They hadn't intended to pour in cement.

These were children from the Children's Art Class, sponsored by the Virginia Beach Art Association under the instruction of artist Leonette Adler, formerly of New York, now of Norfolk.

Up till this particular Saturday morning, all instruction had been given in the unassuming fourth-grade classroom of the New Building of Virginia Beach Friends School. But, with the promise of a beach-like sand sculpture, Mrs. Adler decided to introduce them to sand sculpture—on the beach itself.

The method is comparatively simple—if you know how. You dig a hole, with your hands as tools, fairly close to the ocean, not too close to any of the other sculptors. First, you scrape aside the top layer of dry sand, to the packed wet sand below. Then you carve a definite shape, working downward.

Mrs. Adler's pupils chose as the subjects of their shapes people, a couple of dinosaurs, one alligator, one octopus, one horse, and masks a la Totem pole.

They decorated the bottoms of the shaped holes with seashells, twigs, and buttons at appropriate spots. Then came the great moment of mixing the stuff in the big bag with sea-water hauled in from the ocean in a bucket by one 10-year-old boy brave enough to take off his shoes and roll up his blue denim.

"The water was cold as ice at first," he said afterwards, "but then it felt wonderful." (The temperature was approximately 40, and by this time the sun had gone in, the wind gone chill.)

The mixed stuff was supposed to be plaster-of-paris: it was supposed to dry in 15 minutes, after which the sand could be dug away from all sides of the cast form, so that the positive form could be safely removed, intact, as a permanent example of the art of sculpture—one that could even be taken home.

Fifteen, twenty-five minutes elapsed. The time was now 12:30. Nothing seemed to be hardening, except the arteries of the impatient artists.

That was when Mrs. Adler decided to look on the labelling of the big 500-lb. bag, and discovered it wasn't the extra plaster-of-paris, but gypsum cement plaster. (It was bought for the occasion by a helpful mother who shall remain nameless.)

"That's what they make sidewalk out of!" mourned one boy. "Sidewalks take a month to get hard!"

Plasterer James W. Dunbar, of London Bridge, when consulted by telephone, was a little more hopeful.

"It will take at least 24 hours," he said. "But, then you probably can't take it up without breaking. That's a base-coat plaster. All plasterers have gypsum, and there are two kinds of plaster-of-paris. What you need is molding plaster. Stir it up real sloppy-like, and pour it in. Why don't you get some about 8 o'clock Monday morning from Fuel and Feed and start again?"

Mrs. Adler knew all this; she just hadn't bought the plaster herself. She's an extremely talented young woman, who majored in art education at Hunter College in New York, won a Yale art scholarship, and has already won best-in-show and purchase prizes in various exhibits.

Undismayed, she lingered at the chilling beach, till at 4 p.m. she was able to resurrect what she could of her children's art from the sands of time. To leave them overnight was hopeless; tides were coming in, Sunday's strollers would be coming down, and one best had already completely destroyed a dinosaur.

Several came up pretty intact, to finish out the drying process at Mrs. Adler's home on Garland Circle. Among them, one figure of a rather sandy gingerbread-type man (see picture), with shells enmeshed as eyes, nose, mouth, hands, and apparently as a belt-buckle, though the boy artist who made it said it was his belt-buckle.

Said the boy who made it, with the fierce pride of an artist, "I just hope if anybody ever steps on any of the sculpture we couldn't pick up today, they stub their toes on the cement!"

WEED-KILLING "BLANKET"
"IN ACTION!"
All celery planted same time. Only difference: celery at left was band sprayed once with Vegadex at planting. Results like this, last year, saved commercial growers from $20 to $90 an acre on hand-weeding costs.

THIS NEW WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" CAN SAVE YOU $20 TO $90 PER ACRE IN VEGETABLE CROPS

It's Vegadex, and it kills weeds for you in a new way. You spray it only once—at planting time. Vegadex forms an invisible chemical blanket over your soil that smother weeds. Pesky annual grasses—even tough weeds like purslane and henbit—sprout, touch the "blanket," and die. Because weeds seldom appear, Vegadex can cut labor costs for hand weeding as much as $90 per acre. Your vegetables come through unharmed, with no weeds to fight them for sunlight, water and plant food. And Vegadex won't "build up" in your soil, even if you spray each time you plant.

Before you plant your next crop, drop by your nearest Monsanto Farm Chemicals Dealer. He'll tell you how Vegadex adds extra profits to every acre of vegetables you harvest.

Make sure you're spraying right. Ask your Monsanto Dealer about the special offer on the SPRAY-RATER that completely measures the amount of spray your rig applies per acre.

MIDDLE ATLANTIC GROWERS
Vegadex is safe for spinach, collards, kale, mustard, turnips, horseradish, broccoli, beets, sprouts, cauliflower, cauliflower, snap beans, lima beans, soybeans, garden beans, edam, lentils, sweet peas, field corn.

Grace Brethren Dedicate Chapel

The Grace Brethren Church at Hilltop has announced the dedication of its Chapel for Sunday, March 23 at the 11 a.m. hour. It has been announced by the Rev. A. Harold Arrington, pastor. The dedicatory message will be delivered by the Rev. Kenneth L. Teague, pastor of the Ghent Brethren Church of Roanoke, Va. In connection with the dedication service, Mr. Teague will also bring Bible messages on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings at 7:30. A native of Buena Vista, Va., Mr. Teague is a graduate of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., and of Grace Theological Seminary, Winona Lake, Ind., having received the latter's highest scholastic award of magna cum laude. Before assuming his present pastorate in Roanoke, he was pastor in Wheaton, Ill., and Alexandria, Va. The public is cordially invited to attend these special services.

Civic Chorus Officially Under Way Here

The Virginia Beach Civic Chorus is officially underway. At the first meeting, held on Friday, March 7, 1958, Mr. Frank Ferrigno was elected business and program chairman; Mrs. D. Murray Malbon, music chairman and librarian; Miss Joan Kennary, publicity chairman, and Miss Ann Davis, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Fern A.

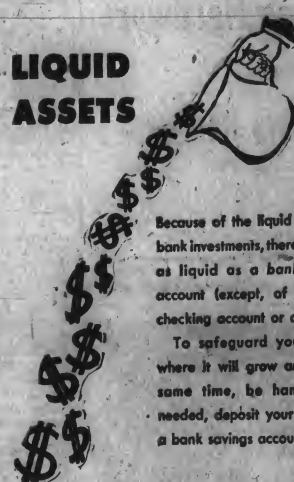

Salmon will be accompanying the chorus. Under the direction of Wm. Everett Thurman, the group will rehearse every Friday evening at 8 p.m. in the Star of the Sea's Parish House on 14th Street.

A variety of music will be performed by the chorus ranging from folk songs and spirituals to semi-classical and light opera. It is anticipated that at least one concert will be presented by the end of this season, details of which will follow.

It is hoped that new voices will be added to the Virginia Beach Civic Chorus each week.

For hot cakes that "stack up" with Mrs. M's you need an automatic ELECTRIC

Mrs. Modern's "top" secret is the automatic top element on her new Electric Range. She just sets it to the right cake making temperature... and that's the way it keeps the griddle, through batch after tender, golden batch of perfect hot cakes. And that's just one of its tricks—from frying chicken to simmering soup, with never a scorch or a boil-over!

And her oven has a memory! Like the automatic top element, it remembers the baking temperature she dialed, and holds it any length of time. Best of all, it can remember to turn itself on and off at whatever hours Mrs. M commands. So she can leave it to bake whole meals all by itself!

Why not be Mrs. M. yourself? See the new model auto-magic Electric Ranges and "built-ins" at your Electric Appliance Dealer's soon. And to plan, room by room, for better Electric Living all over your home, ask Vepco for the new fascinating, FREE HOUSEPOWER WIRING CHART.

Plentiful Eggs for Meatless Days

Use plentiful eggs for meatless menus. Today's recipe for Baked Eggs is a nourishing and economical supper dish that is so simple to prepare. Contributing to the ease of preparation is the quick cheese sauce which is made with instant nonfat dry milk.

"The Heart of Milk," instant Starline nonfat dry milk is a rich source of protein, calcium and riboflavin. It mixes immediately, even in ice water, and it is important in all ways that milk is used in the home—drinking, cooking and baking.

It comes in three handy economical packages: 1. The family-size package which makes 12 quarts of nonfat milk for as little as seven cents a quart; 2. The one-pound package which makes five quarts of nonfat milk; and 3. The pre-measured package which contains three individual envelopes, each making one quart of nonfat milk.

BAKED EGGS

(Makes four 1/4 cup servings)

- | | |
|---|---|
| 2 tablespoons butter | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1 medium-size onion, sliced | 1 teaspoon dry mustard |
| 1/2 medium-size green pepper, sliced | 1/2 teaspoon pepper |
| 1 tablespoon diced pimiento | 1/2 lb. sharp processed cheese food, shredded |
| 1 1/2 cups liquefied instant Starline nonfat dry milk | 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce |
| 3 tablespoons flour | 6 hard-cooked eggs |

Melt butter in small skillet. Sauté vegetables until just tender. Pour liquefied instant Starline nonfat dry milk into top of double boiler. Sprinkle combined flour and seasonings over surface. Beat with rotary beater until just blended. Cook, stirring constantly, over hot water until thickened. Stir in cheese and Worcestershire sauce; cook, stirring constantly, until cheese melts. Slice hard-cooked eggs; place 1 1/2 eggs in each of four individual envelopes. Top each with vegetable mixture. Four cheese sauce over vegetables.

Judges from the Lake Joyce Garden Club awarded a gold seal to Mrs. Parker for her arrangement "Spring is Here," composed of white willow and Camellias in a white milk glass compote.

Other ribbons went to Mrs. S. M. Parker, Mrs. Roy Telford, Mrs. W. C. Griffin, Mrs. Everett P. Ray, Mrs. C. M. Hodgman, Mrs. S. F. Rhodes and Mrs. W. T. Byrne.

In the horticulture division, a gold seal to both Mrs. Crockett and Mrs. W. T. Parker, and blue ribbons to Mrs. J. E. Maddox, Mrs. S. M. Parker, Mrs. Seay, Mrs. Hodgman and Mrs. Griffin.

All club members were urged to attend course 3, of the Flower Show Judging School, to be presented by the Federation of Garden Clubs of Norfolk and vicinity, Inc., at Garden Center on March 18th, 19th and 20th.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor in our world for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a powerhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For our souls. (2) For the children's souls. (3) For the sake of our community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs your moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Board Gives Approval to Record Budget for County

The Princess Anne County Kempsville Magisterial District Board of Supervisors adopted a record $5,292,500 budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1 and ending in the spring of 1959. The budget is the largest in the history of the county and is a record for the entire state. The present tax structure in the new starting salary will be $3.30 a month.

The new budget represents an increase of some $800,000 over the present year's budget. The increase is due to the fact that the Board of Supervisors adopted the Board to adopt a new salary for the county's 100 full-time employees. The new budget on final reading at the county's monthly meeting, previously they had approved the appropriations on a first reading.

Largest appropriation for any single purpose, as usual, was $1,000,000 for public school operation and maintenance. In addition, $470,000 was appropriated for school capital outlay in the

Webbon Named Public Works Head for Princess Anne County

Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary to the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors, was given additional duties Monday when the county governing body named Webbon as director of the county department of public works.

In the new post Webbon will supervise and coordinate the activities of the county's building inspector, planning inspector, electrical inspector and zoning enforcement officer.

The board gave its approval to working with the City of Virginia Beach to obtain State aid for a proposed new library and bookmobile. The board also approved enlargement of the Lynnhaven Mosquito Control District to take in additional territory that has developed in recent months.

James E. Hall, the county's recreation director, was named as director of the County Community Fund for financial assistance in support of the county's recreation program. Hall told the supervisors that it was his understanding that Norfolk County and South Norfolk are receiving such aid from the United Community Fund.

The supervisors approved payment of $17,123 to the city of Norfolk for sewage bills in the Ames, Acres, Bromley, Lakeland Apartments and Hewitt Farms sections.

A county spokesman said about $100,000 of this amount is covered by revenue from sewage assessments in those sections.

Edward M. Williams, county building inspector, reported a total of 244 building permits issued during the past month, some of which were for new residences.

Value of new construction for which permits have been issued since Jan. 1 totals $1,673,400, he said.

Compared with a year ago for the same period, Williams said county residents construction is up, but commercial construction is considerably down.

The total for the same period a year ago is off some $1,300,000, he added.

A delegation from the Diamond Springs Civic League appeared before the board to request permission to use a 25-foot strip of county land between Lake Smith and the houses in that section for development of community park and recreation facilities.

The supervisors instructed the delegation to have legal papers drawn that would grant a permanent license for such purposes.

Question Asked On Recreation By Director

OCEANA, is recreation a luxury or not needed in Princess Anne County? This is the question that was asked Jim Lall, Recreation Director, during the course of a conversation with the board.

Mr. Lall, answered this question with another question, "Is the physical and mental health, welfare, and well being of the children and adults in Princess Anne County or anywhere considered a luxury? Why not answer this question yourself, and if the answer is negative call Jim Lall, Princess Anne County Recreation Director for information on what you can do in bringing about recreation in your community. The recreation office is open from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, telephone Virginia Beach 2591.

The Recreation Department is proud to report at the end of their first year of operation that the Princess Anne County Court showed a marked decline in juvenile cases compared with previous years. The report did not say that the Recreation Department was responsible for this decline; however, the department feels that their recreation programs certainly played a large part in bringing this decline about. When children, and adults for that matter, have idle time, what is a better way to occupy that time than clean, wholesome activities of their choice. This is where recreation takes a hand.

Just twenty-one months ago the Board of Supervisors, the governing body of Princess Anne County was faced with this problem, and they realized that recreation was a necessity for the rapidly expanding population of Princess Anne County. Immediately they appointed a group to look into the situation and bring back a report to the Board. After careful consideration the Board decided to establish a recreation department under the direction of a professional director. Furthermore, they realized that in order for a well organized recreation system be established in the county that a Recreation Board must be appointed to work with the director in setting up rules and policies for the department. Thus the Recreation Board came into being.

Many city and county recreational organizations were considered and discussed by the Recreation Board before one was decided upon. One had to be found that would enable the de-

Attractive Homes Included In Va. Beach Garden Tour

Kay Douglass Sewell, modern architecture, conceived with imagination and taste, and furnished with equal taste and imagination.

Both were built to fulfill certain specific needs in family living.

Take one example: The P. B. Cook's modern three-level house in Birdneck Point. Inside the big two-story living room, another room (the study) seems miraculously suspended in mid-air.

Or take the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Charles on the oceanfront. (The only purely summertime home on the tour.) Every room has one entire wall of glass looking out on the beach and the ocean. Downstairs, there are two more glass walls, which when open on to screened porches, are beautifully appointed as the room inside.

The most ancient of these cultures is represented in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George King of Linkhorn Park. Here the old orient combines happily with the finest accoutrements of modern living. No less dominating than the Chinese is every piece of furniture in the house up-to-date kitchen—with its special equipment for the cooking of Chinese dishes.

It is surprising to think of old world charm on an Atlantic seashore, but you will find it in both houses and guest house at Four Winds, which belongs to Mrs. S. Parker McConnell.

You will find it particularly in her walled garden. The look of mellowed timelessness is emphasized by her loving use of small exquisite pieces of sculpture, and by her almost year-round succession of bloom.

Spanish splendor is evidenced inside the long low white house of Mr. and Mrs. Earle Van Hook in Bay Colony. Typical is an Empire console table which once belonged to the Empress Carlotta, one of the pieces brought back by the owners from their 17 years of residence in Mexico.

As for the two completely contemporary homes on this tour, the Virginia Beach Garden Club, which selected them is very proud that both exemplify really sound and modern architecture, conceived with imagination and taste, and furnished with equal taste and imagination.

Award Winners of P.A. Woman's Club

These ladies, all members of the Princess Anne Woman's Club, have much in common. All of them were award winners at the recent spring meeting of the Tidewater District of Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs. They are, left to right, Mrs. H. E. Billips, Mrs. Foster I. Gilbert, Mrs. J. Furman Dey, Mrs. Earl DuVal, Mrs. Sterling Holcomb and Mrs. W. G. Ashman. Other winners not pictured are Mrs. Roy M. Aycock and Mrs. R. H. Owen.

DOWNING ANSWERS CRITICS HE IS LOYAL DEMOCRAT

Thomas N. Downing, candidate for Congress from Virginia's First Congressional District, assured his critics Tuesday that he is a "loyal Democrat" and that his standing is no different from that of many leaders of the Democratic Party in Virginia.

Downing, in answer to charges made Monday by H. Alton Parrish, who resigned as Newport News Democratic Chairman, stated that it is "well known" he voted for President Eisenhower in 1952, but "I was by no means alone in this position."

Earlier in the week Parrish had said that Sidney S. Kellam, of Virginia Beach, chairman of the First District Democratic Committee, was trying to "force" Downing on the district.

Kellam immediately retorted to Parrish's charges stating that he (Parrish) on two occasions had solicited his (Kellam's) support for Robert M. Saunders in February. Kellam said Parrish had criticized both Downings and incumbent Rep. E. J. Robinson Jr. Downing, Saunders and Robinson are all residents of Warrenton and are candidates in the July 15 primary.

Downing, in his statement Tuesday, described Parrish's charge as an "attempted attempt to party standards." The candidate, endorsed already by Democratic organization leaders in York County, on the Eastern Shore and in Princess Anne-Virginia Beach, added:

"I am a true and loyal Democrat. I have consistently voted the State Democratic ticket in every election since I became of voting age. I am a member of the Democratic Party in Virginia and I am proud of it."

Downing added:

"I welcome the support of Sidney S. Kellam. I do not welcome the support of all other voters in our district."

Here is the text of the formal statement by Downing:

"Let Mr. Parrish conduct his campaign as he sees fit. My friends and I will continue to campaign in a manner that we believe to be right and proper."

"We fully intend to wage an honorable and clean campaign, and one that will do credit to the people of the First District."

"The purpose of the Democratic primary as I see it is to select the most qualified person to represent the party and district in the general election; a person whom the people of this district would be proud to call their congressman."

"I have said it before and I shall say it again: I do not propose to be drawn into any misleading contest, the result of which would only hurt the candidates themselves and the Democratic Party we represent."

"In regard to Mr. Parrish's attempt to attack on my party standing, I would like to say that

'Confederacy' Site Clearing Now In Progress; Ready July 1

A giant bulldozer began pushing aside tall pines and stumps yesterday to make room for the spacious amphitheatre to be used for this summer's production of 'The Confederacy.' The amphitheatre will be in the forest located just one mile from the ocean at the old park just off Laskin Road in Princess Anne County.

The initial clearing was made possible by the donation of men and equipment by Ames and Webb, Inc. of Norfolk.

The theatre plans were drawn by Lublin and McCaughy of Norfolk, and is being built under the supervision of John Mortensen and Edgar Wood of Virginia Beach and Norfolk.

The modern outdoor theatre will be built largely through the donations of men and equipment made by leading contractors and suppliers located in the Tidewater Area. When completed the theatre will be equipped with aluminum lawn chairs with a capacity of 1,544 which can be expanded to exceed 1,700 on special and "sell-out" nights.

The Tidewater Historic Drama Association, a nonprofit civic organization, has been formed to build the amphitheatre and produce this the newest Paul Green play. The first performance will be on July 1 and the play will continue through Labor Day this summer. Henry Clay Hofheimer II of Norfolk and Sidney Kellam of Virginia Beach are heading the Association composed of representatives from Portsmouth, Norfolk County, Virginia Beach, and Princess Anne County. Kellam was recently cited as Virginia Beach's First Citizen for his work in establishing the outdoor drama.

Funds necessary for the realization of the production here come from donations from the political subdivisions represented in the association and from private interests.

The drama will employ over 100 persons for the production of the play which will once again focus the National Spotlight of recognition on Tidewater Virginia and

The supplementary Thursday night exhibit will feature representative works of local children—the fruits of 10 weeks' instruction by artist Leonette Adler, formerly of New York, now of Norfolk, under the sponsorship of Virginia Beach Art Association.

Visitors will see examples of sand collage (using shells, twigs, other natural objects assembled by the children), paper match figures, wire sculpture, sculpture from a combination of vermicelli, plaster and sand (carved with butterknives), and several pieces of sand sculpture made from the beach itself (including the sand gingerbread, made accidentally of cement, of recent fashions).

Inconel nickel-chromium alloy, containing about 80 per cent nickel, 14 per cent chromium and 6 per cent iron is used where high temperature and corrosion-resistance are involved, such as in electrical heating units and parts of jet engines where temperatures reach as high as 1,800 degrees Fahrenheit.

Handsome, furnished and finished in pastel colors, the lounge of the new Bachelor Officer's Quarters was dedicated and officially opened for business on Monday, March 17, 1958. The lounge includes a cocktail bar, color TV set and a reading section with the latest periodicals. The soft colors that make up the finish of the lounge gives a very restful appearance and relaxing atmosphere for those officers that take advantage of this facility.

On Saturday, March 15, 1958 the Norfolk Wildcats, winner of the Norfolk county Midget league, defeated the Oceana Jets who were winners of the Princess Anne County Midget League by the score of 33 to 18. Although the score was low the action was fast and furious and it was thought by many to be one of the best games in Air Station gym this season.

Fearon Five, who will represent Oceana in the District Basketball Tournament, defeated the Blue Angels in an exhibition game played at NAS, Oceana by the score of 67 to 52. Fearon displayed the form that could result in a win for Oceana in the District Tournament. The Blue Angels who were Princess Anne County champions could not get rolling against the fast moving Fearon Five Quintet.

A class in Military Justice has been started at NAS, Oceana for the military personnel stationed at this base. This class will meet twice a week and will help the sailor understand the laws by which he is governed. This class will make the sailor more of an asset to the Navy and a better citizen of America.

This is to explain to the people of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County the actual purpose of the U. S. Navy Air Station at Oceana. The mission of Oceana is to support the Fleet Squadrons and Fleet personnel. At the present time approximately 20 squadrons make NAS Oceana their home base. Oceana's sole purpose for existence is to support these units by furnishing training, messing, housing, recreational and other facilities, as well as items to keep the aircraft flying, such as fuel, oil, oxygen, runway watched, tower operators, weather observations and other miscellaneous supplies.

Pilots receive training in air-to-air gunnery, bombing practice, Field Carrier Landing Practice and many other instructions that are vital to their mission.

These pilots are the first line of defense for America and this training enables them to be in top ready condition for any event. Only through the complete understanding of the above and the teamwork of all concerned will Oceana be able to fulfill her goal. The cooperation of both military and civilian are needed if we are going to be in top notch ready condition.

EASTER SERVICE
Protestant Easter Sunrise Service will be Sunday, April 6, 1958 at the Cape Henry Church near the Light House. Buses will run from NAS Oceana and Oceana Apartments at 6:15 and will return after the service with passengers wishing to return to this destination. All military personnel stationed at Oceana are urged to attend this most beautiful service in the worshipping of Easter.

Air Force Recruiting Women for Special Flight to Texas Air Base

The United States Air Force is presently interviewing applicants for a special group of women to be known as the "Miss Virginia Flight."

According to T Sgt. Fred T. Spruce, of the local Air Force Recruiting Office, girls from the southern part of Virginia will be enlisted on April 28, 1958, and fly, as a group, to Lackland Air Force Base in Texas for their basic training.

The progress of the women in the Air Force (WAF) into the present form has been based upon necessity and upon constantly increasing recognition of its growth and development. The challenge facing the Air Force never ceases. But the modern woman with her infinite capacity for progress stands beside her counterpart, the Airman, contributing her share to the advances made in an ever changing global Air Force.

The United States Air Force can now offer young ladies, between the ages of 18-34 and with high school diploma or equivalent, a position of importance and prestige in a fashion-approved, chic uniform of Air Force blue. The job offered is no ordinary job for this is a position of high trust and of great importance. Women of the Air Force have proved, time and again, their value to this country in its struggle to maintain the best Air Force the world has ever known.

Women of the Air Force can qualify to become a radio or radar operator. Maybe a Control Tower Operator with the responsibility for the landing of the giant aircraft or perhaps an Airline Hostess on the world's largest airline: The Military Air Transport Service.

All in all, the Women of the Air Force are entitled to the same benefits as the men: namely, same rate of pay, opportunities for advancement, longevity and retirement, free dental and medical care, 30 days leave with pay each year and an opportunity for extensive travel. Here's another big advantage: an opportunity for continuing education while serving. The young women in the Air Force can earn college credits of which the Air Force will pay 75% of the course.

Cigarette lighters and cases, pens and similar articles are often plated with rhodium, one of the platinum group metals, to give them a brilliant, long-lasting finish.

Local Man Elected President of East Carolina SGA

Greenville, N. C. — Emanuel (Mike) Katalas of Virginia Beach, Va., junior at East Carolina College, won the position of president of the campus Student Government Association in elections held Thursday, March 20. He will assume his duties this spring and hold office during the 1957-1958 term. As a candidate, he was unopposed.

Katalas has been a participant in various student activities during his three years on the campus here. He is president of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and treasurer of the Interfraternity Council. Last fall he was a member of the SGA Committee which planned the annual Homecoming Day for Alumni. A graduate of the high school at Virginia Beach, he is the son of Mrs. Despina Katalas of 612 Twenty-third street.

The turn-out of approximately 1800 voters for campus elections this year indicates the interest occasioned by the annual choice of student officers. Marcia Forbes of Farmville acted as chairman in charge of balloting.

Other major SGA officers went to Delano A. Driver, Richmond, Va., and Thomas H. Regland, Plymouth, vice presidents; John P. Hudson, Wadsworth, treasurer; Charles W. Dyson, Rockingham, assistant treasurer; and Barbara Dawsonport, Creswell, historian.

Jo Ann Bryan, Mount Olive, and Sarah Suggs, Route 2, New Bern, will be candidates next Tuesday in a run-off election for the position of secretary.

New officers of the Men's Judiciary are William A. Jenkins, Fairmont, chairman; W. Leniz Franklin, Rockingham, vice chairman; Darrell Hunt, Route 5, Raleigh, secretary-treasurer; and Robert L. Harper, Route 2, Tarboro, and R. C. Hall, Selma, members-at-large.

Martha Wilson, Route 5, Winston-Salem, as chairman, and Elizabeth Ann Leary, Alliance, as vice chairman, will head the Women's Judiciary. Serving with them will be Sadie Barber, Route 5, Clinton, secretary; Nancy Brown, Greenville, treasurer, and Betty Hart, Goldsboro, member-at-large.

Voters defeated a proposed change in the SGA constitution which would have raised the fee used to support student publications, entertainments, and other activities from $11 to $13, the vote was 450 for the change, and 911 against it.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

"The Confederacy" Moves Ahead

Paul Green's special outdoor drama, "The Confederacy" which will open here on July 1 is getting into high gear as far as construction of the amphitheatre and the completion of the technical staff.

The past week found the first work being done on the site which is located just off Leskin Road near Birdneck Point. Bulldozers and other earth moving equipment descended on the site.

The Tidewater Historic Drama Association, the non-profit sponsoring organization, is to be commended for its efforts to date. And, the people of the various political subdivisions and their leaders are also due much credit for bringing the drama about.

We believe "The Confederacy" will lend much to the summer season here and will certainly fill a void in the entertainment of our visitors.

Virginia Beach should look with confidence to the approaching tourist season. Great changes are taking place here and the new look is evident everywhere with the new convention hall, new accommodations and "The Confederacy".

FORT STORY TELLINGS

LINCOLN INSPECTS

Major General Rush B. Lincoln Jr., Commanding General of the Transportation Training Command, inspected three Fort Story transportation companies Saturday.

The units inspected, the 155th, 417th and the 565th, have been designated to take part in Operation 078 East and Gap Pine. The two operations are joint Army-Navy supply missions to the Air Force DUKW-Line outposts in the Atlantic. The three companies will leave Fort Story in the summer and return in late fall.

After inspecting the three companies in ranks, General Lincoln was briefed on the training for the operation by Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy Jr., Commanding officer of the parent unit, the 10th Transportation Battalion.

CAPE HENRY PILGRIMAGE SET

The annual pilgrimage of the Cape Henry Pilgrimage to the historic ruins marking the spot of the landing of the first permanent English settlers will be held this year in conjunction with Fort Story's Easter Sunrise Service April 6.

The pilgrimage, an annual affair since 1930, is ordinarily held on the Sunday closest to April 6, the date of the landing of the Jamestown settlers. According to Mrs. Frank Naylor, president of the Order, conflicting events this year prevent the holding of the pilgrimage at that time.

This year's pilgrimage will mark the 351st anniversary of the landing on the Cape Henry dunes, the colonists prepared for their ships to Old Point Comfort and then on to Jamestown.

Fort Story's annual Easter Sunrise Service is sponsored jointly by the post's Chaplain Division and Ministerial Alliance of Virginia Beach. According to Chaplain (Capt.) Roger H. Greener, seven Virginia Beach ministers will take part in the service.

MCCARTHY TAKES 10th BATTALION

A change of command at Fort Story Monday, March 17th, saw Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy Jr. take over the 10th Transportation Battalion. He relieves Lt. Col. Robert M. Wyant.

Colonel McCarthy, formerly the Chief of Staff of the 4th Transportation (Terminal) Command "C" at Fort Story entered the Army in July of 1937 as a Second Lieutenant. His Army commission in infantry was awarded upon graduation from Clemson College in South Carolina.

Colonel McCarthy saw service in World War II at Fort Benning, Georgia and in New Orleans. After the war he served with the Japanese Occupation Forces for three years, and held a staff position in the office of the Chief of Transportation in Washington. He served with the forces in Korea during 1953 and 1954 where he was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious service.

Command of the 10th Battalion will not be new to Colonel McCarthy. He was the commanding officer of the unit for several months upon its arrival at Fort Story in July of 1956.

Colonel Wyant, the former Commanding Officer will become Special Project Officer of the 4th TTC "C".

DUKW DRIVERS AWARD

Four members of Fort Story's 461st Transportation Company have been awarded the Army's Amphibious Drivers Award. The award is given to men who have driven the Amphibious Truck (DUKW) for one year or for 8,000 miles without an accident.

Lieutenant John L. Nolan, Commanding Officer of the 461st presented the awards to Master Sergeant Alfred M. Herron, company first sergeant; Sergeant First Class George E. Insko, Specialist Third Class Elmer G. Lind, and Specialist Third Class Kenneth E. Culp.

Trail Signs

A Scout Today—
A Man Tomorrow

By E. C. Lawrence Smith
On Saturday, March 22, boys acting as Den Chiefs had a chance to learn more information to help their duties. Where? and When? Seaboard District held its Den Chief training course under the direction of Mr. Bill Davis, Accredited, Va. The purpose of the course was to teach games, skills, songs and other training aids to the Den Chiefs. The job of a Den Chief is not an easy one.

A Den Chief assists the Den Mother in running the Den meeting. It is his job to keep the Cub Scouts interested and busy while the Den Mother takes care of the administrative roll call and other official chores. A Den Chief should be the kind of boy Cub Scouts look up to. He should possess qualities of leadership.

Most Den Chiefs have these qualifications. These are sometimes not enough. A Den Chief has to know games, puzzles and other things to keep his Cubs interested.

He can climb rope like a chimpanzee, tell stories like a storyteller, and be sort of a big brother to everyone in the Den. The training course at Little Creek provided new and interesting things for Den Chiefs to learn.

There were about thirty boys and two Den Mothers present. The course lasted from nine-thirty to four with a noon "chow" break at a Little Creek mess hall. From this training course sponsored by Seaboard District, some of the district Den Chiefs learned more to make their Dens and Packs better.

It might be interesting to note that out of the thirty boys there, there were no representatives from Virginia Beach Packs although there are five in the Beach proper.

Still in the field of training, another training course for Cub Scouts, Scouters and Explorers to be held at Little Creek Wednesday evening, of the sixteenth, twenty-third and thirtieth of April from seven thirty to nine p.m. Also advanced Cubbing and Scout plans are now in progress for the spring conference. Seaboard District held in the middle of May, destination as yet unknown. Start your troop planning now before it's too late.

Today's trail up: With the coming of spring, come showers. When you make your camp don't neglect to ditch around your tents. Many a camper finds himself flooded out in the later hours because he forgot to ditch about his tent. When you leave, don't forget to fill in the ditches you dug. Always leave your campsite looking better than you found it.

Downing

I am a true and loyal Democrat. I have consistently voted the State Democratic ticket in every election since I became of voting age with the exception in 1952—a fact which is well known.

"In that year I voted for the Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate, the House of Representatives, and for all other Democratic nominees with the exception of the Democratic nominee for President.

"The majority of the voters of the district and of the State felt as I did—and Virginia is overwhelmingly Democratic.

"Many of the recognized leaders of the Democratic Party in Virginia took the same position that I took. That position has been declared legal by the former Attorney General J. Lindsay Almond Jr., who is now the Governor of Virginia.

"I welcome the support of Mr. Sidney B. Kellam, whose support Mr. Parrish sought and was unable to get, as I welcome the support of all other voters in our district."

Anita De Castro Opens Spring Season at Cavalier

Anita De Castro and her orchestra open April 4th in a return engagement at The Cavalier's Hunt Room. They will be featured until the Beach Club opening May 30th.

The vivacious Anita and her orchestra were so enthusiastically received here last spring that they booked the Latin American band this spring, in time for the Easter holidays. They will entertain nightly (except Sundays) when they play for the customary tea dances.

A singing dynamo, Anita De Castro started her career as a coloratura soprano, having studied at the Juilliard School of Music. Later, she switched to popular and rumba tunes. She comes by her talent naturally from her father, a noted pianist, and her mother who was an actress with the legitimate Spanish theatre.

During the period when she was singing with well-known Spanish-American Bands of Nora Morales and Tito Rodriguez she met and married Rodger Mendes who helped Anita form her own band by doing her arrangements and playing drums with the group.

The National Outlook

SIGNIFICANT ITEMS ON THE BUSINESS TREND

By Ralph Robey

Four items on the business trend are items of note.

1. The Federal Reserve Board week of production, with 1957 as equal to 100, in January dropped another point to 100. This is some 7 1/2 per cent below the peak of December 1956, and 0 1/2 per cent below the level of last August. In the 1950-54 business recession the total drop was a little over 10 per cent.

This is the only measure we have of over-all production. It is in physical terms—price changes do not affect it—and it is generally regarded as a good index. A measure of sales movement, however, is somewhat misleading.

Also, however, is not surprising. With the steel industry operating at below 80 per cent of capacity, with one automobile company after another curbing production, and many other industries in similar straits, it was inevitable that the index would show a decline.

An index covers a wide range of industries. It is not a measure of any one industry. It is a measure of the entire economy. In January it was over 14 per cent below its peak of December 1956. Unemployment figures for the middle of January were 4.5 million. This was an increase of 1.1 million since the middle of December and is the highest unemployment since 1954. It represents 5.3 per cent of the labor force.

Manufacturing employment in January was 1.1 million below a year earlier. Of this decline about 1/2 million was due to the decline in the number of hours worked. The other 1/2 million was due to the decline in the number of workers. This was a decline of 1.1 million since the middle of December and is the highest unemployment since 1954. It represents 5.3 per cent of the labor force.

Recreation

partment to reach the maximum number of people with the most recreation, operating under a small staff, on a minimum budget. This was absolutely necessary since the county did not have the tax money that most cities have to operate their government. After long and careful study the Recreation Board decided upon a similar organization currently in operation in Jefferson County, Kentucky, thus came into existence for organizing recreation in Princess Anne County.

The other rim of the wagon wheel simulates the population of the county, with each spoke representing a community, and the hub of the wheel the recreation department. Spokes with a hub held little strength to a wheel. Programs of recreation in the county operating independently are much like spokes unattached to a hub. To serve recreation best communities in the county as spokes must attach themselves to the Recreation Department employed to serve as the hub for county-wide operation and administration of recreation.

Using the wheel as the basis for organizing recreation during the first year in the county, approximately twelve community recreation committees were organized and affiliated with the Recreation Department. Through these committees county-wide athletic leagues, such as baseball, football, softball, and basketball, were organized. Commercial enterprises, such as the Lynnhaven and William Reed Fishing Pier, were utilized for the children of the county free of charge. Elementary schools were used as recreation centers and school playground and athletic facilities were improved with the help of the County School Board, and the County Club began to materialize under supervision of volunteers working in the various communities. Currently, the number of recreation committees that were organized during the first year have doubled and more and more recreation has been brought about.

Communities that organize recreation committees and affiliate with the Recreation Department must be composed of a minimum of five responsible adult representative of the community they wish to represent. Every church, civic organization, PTA, etc., should be invited to have representatives serve on the community's recreation committee. The object of such a committee is to pull their resources, work out ways and means, and provide the necessary volunteer leadership to bring about a year-round recreation program for the children and adults in their community.

Beginning July 1, 1958, all recreation committees affiliated with the Princess Anne County Recreation Department must renew their affiliation. If such a committee already exists in your community find out where and when they hold their regular monthly meetings and join with them. If one does not exist in your community one may be organized after meeting with Jim Lall, Recreation Director, and submitting the necessary forms for approval to the Recreation Board.

Before your community recreation committee can affiliate with the Recreation Department there are certain articles of agreement between the department and your committee that must be agreed upon and signed by your chairman. A few of the agreements are that a committee agree to meet once a month to work out ways and means to bring about recreation in their community, plan programs, and submit a copy of the minutes of their monthly meetings to the recreation office; mail a copy of their monthly financial records showing the funds raised by their committee, during that month, to supplement the funds appropriated by the department in carrying their committee to carry on their recreation program; submit a copy of the minutes of their monthly meetings to the recreation office; mail a copy of their monthly financial records showing the funds raised by their committee, during that month, to supplement the funds appropriated by the department in carrying their committee to carry on their recreation program; submit a copy of the minutes of their monthly meetings to the recreation office; mail a copy of their monthly financial records showing the funds raised by their committee, during that month, to supplement the funds appropriated by the department in carrying their committee to carry on their recreation program.

90 per cent was in durable goods. The factory work week declined in January to 38.7 hours, or 1 1/2 hours below a year earlier. This decline resulted in the average weekly earnings of January workers being $10.10, or 10 cents below the level of a year earlier.

As a result, the business trend index in 1957 was 100, and in 1958 it was 100. This is some 7 1/2 per cent below the peak of December 1956, and 0 1/2 per cent below the level of last August. In the 1950-54 business recession the total drop was a little over 10 per cent.

Scott Memorial Official Board Feted at Dinner

Approximately sixty guests, including members of the Official Board of Scott Memorial Methodist Church, their wives and husbands, were entertained at a dinner on Wednesday, March 19, given for the Official Board by the Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Strieby. The guests were entertained by music provided by Mrs. Ernest P. H. Strieby, director of Scott Memorial, and Mr. Edgar Gintest, a member of the choir. Each of these persons sang a solo and the two combined in a duet. Guest speaker for the event was the Rev. Paul Best, pastor of the Chesapeake avenue, Methodist Church of Norfolk, Virginia, who spoke on the theme, "Working Together With God." Members of the Official Board provided a large "Birthday" cake for the occasion, and presented a fluorescent desk lamp to the Rev. F. H. Strieby, their pastor, as a "Birthday" gift. The Scott Memorial Church has recently been engaged in a campaign of Visitation Evangelism, from which thirteen new members have been received, with several others to be received in the near future. The people of this congregation are now working faithfully to pay in full the existing indebtedness on the parsonage by March thirty-first. The parsonage, located at 624 Virginia avenue in Oceana, was built only five years ago, during the ministry of the Rev. Wm. N. Rainey. At the Palm Sunday Services, on March thirtieth, at 11:00 a.m., the pastor will receive the Junior Class into church membership and baptize infants and small children, at one of the outstanding services of the year.

Additional Funds Available for Soil Bank

Mr. W. F. Hunger, chairman of the Princess Anne County ASC Committee, reports that most farmers who wanted to take part in the 1958 acreage reserve of the Soil Bank, but could not file signed agreements because of fund limitations, apparently will be able to sign up at the county office in the near future.

Both the Senate and House of Representatives have approved a supplemental appropriation of 250 million dollars to provide for additional acreage reserve participation. This will bring the total to 750 million dollars for the 1958 program.

Because agreement on some detailed program provisions must still be reached in the House-Senate conference, Congressional action on the supplemental appropriation is not yet complete. As soon as final action is taken, the county committee will get the "go ahead" for completing the sign up. Preliminary steps have been taken by the State ASC Committee to prepare the day for immediate action when the supplemental funds are authorized.

In addition to farmers who have already signed agreements, which were in general covered by the initial appropriation for the acreage reserve, other eligible farmers will be in position to take part in the enlarged program. These will include those whose names are on "waiting list" registers in the county office and possibly others where there is evidence that they made an attempt to participate during the sign-up period.

While it is expected that in general funds will be available to take care of all farmers who indicated that they would take part in the program if it was enlarged, there is a legislative annual limitation of 300 million dollars for the corn acreage reserve. Because the total of signed agreements and other applications on waiting lists would call for more than 300 million dollars, if all the corn applications were completed, some adjustment will be necessary for this crop.

Public notice will be given properly when the county ASC office is ready to sign additional acreage reserve agreements.

Mr. Hunger says that in the meantime the county office will be prepared to furnish general information but that farmers should not attempt to sign up agreements until official announcements are made.

Drive-In Movie Re-opens Here

The Virginia Beach Drive-In Theatre on Laskin Road re-opened for the spring and summer season this week featuring new and improved equipment and a modernized snack bar.

Popular with local residents and vacationers to this area the Virginia Beach Drive-In will be open every night from now until the fall months.

The theatre this year features the latest RCA sound equipment and speakers plus a new improvement in mirror reflectors that increase light 30 per cent on the screen.

An innovation this year is a new patio where patrons may sit and watch the movies in comfortable chairs.

The latest movies are scheduled to be shown at the Virginia Beach Drive-In and the schedule will appear each week in the Virginia Beach Sun-News, it was announced.

The Virginia Beach Drive-In theatre is located on Laskin Road between Hilltop and the junction of Virginia Beach boulevard at the overpass just east of London Bridge.

It is estimated by International Nickel that the initial yearly production rate of nickel at its new project in Manitoba, Canada, in 1961 will approximate 40,000,000 pounds. This output will be increased as soon as possibly to 75,000,000 pounds annually.

Agrifables

By H. E. Brannen

There was a time when kings were looked upon as big wheels and those lesser spokes of authority were known as wards. For instance, the straw-boss in charge of the king's pig sty was known as the steward. After considerable buck passing, the steward found his shoulder heaped with the added responsibilities of the king's household. The title of steward changed to steward, a designation of great respectability even unto this day. From this came the family name of Stewart or Stuart.

The family of the Stewarts became among men, placing rulers on the English throne. While the hog-slopper boasts a success story of power and pelf, the lowly hog has been rooting among the unimpressive shrubs of history. The Southeast, frustrated by cotton, was of little help in the American hog's early upbringing. In older days, hogs were driven overland from the Midwest by tough professional drivers, to the elegant plantations of the Old South. However, the meat in Ohio, Cincinnati, becoming known as "Portopolis," and marketing methods of hogs underwent a drastic change.

Other circumstances have since further affected hog marketing as well as the hog himself. Cottonseed and soybeans have offered important competition to hard in the cooking oil market. Synthetic detergents have moved into the soap market.

Further, the old-time over-fat hog has come face to face with the quality conscious housewife, who prefers lean meat. Consequently, selling of hogs by weight is giving way to selling by grade. A reshaped standard pig is going to market finishing U. S. No. 1 has been bringing anywhere from 75c to $1.25 per hundredweight.

more than over-fat No. 3. This year's southeastern pig crop is expected to be eight per cent higher than last year's 7 million head. Marketing this increased production is undoubtedly going to require some steel grapple and with this increase in sight, the fat hog is likely to find competition increasingly tough.

'Moral? Where quantity expands, quality commands. During the 70 consecutive years of operations in the Sudbury District of Ontario, Canada, International Nickel and its predecessor companies have mined some 250,000,000 tons of nickel-copper ore.

Why Early Lawn Feeding Is Vital

Lawn grasses are ready to grow as soon as the soil warms up to 38 degrees, claims R. B. Taylor of Fuel Food, local lawn expert.

"This happens weeks before most of us begin to smell spring in the air. But if you really want a lawn that sparkles all year you have to get out early with Turf Builder," Mr. Taylor told us in an interview today at his store.

The early growth is especially important we learned because it is "filling" and rooting. Seems that filling is what a grass man calls the business of pushing out a lot of sprouts close together.

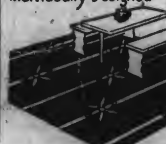

"Lawns need that spring filling to thicken up properly. It's an early spring job for the grass. We can expect the weather to be just right for it to start this year about March 29th provided that the grass has been fed its spring Turf Builder."

Mr. Taylor went on to say that he'd advise prompt feeding, even for grass still brown and seemingly asleep. No harm done if late snow falls after you feed the grass.

"Better make the first application at double-rate if you like real early green-up," Mr. Taylor suggested. "There's no danger of surge growth and extra moving now that the chemists have figured out how to make Turf Builder so that it releases its food a little bit each day the way grass eats."

Feed newly seeded grass? Yes indeed we were told. "Greatest thing you can do for it—speeds the day when you enjoy thick turf. Feed the same day you sow seed, and again every month the first-year."

Cancer Film To Be Shown At Local Theater

The women of Princess Anne County will have the opportunity on Wednesday, April 16th at 10:30 a.m. at the Beach Theatre, Virginia Beach, to learn how to safeguard their health and lives.

They will have a chance to see a motion picture that doctors say already has saved the lives of a great many women and can save many thousands this year.

An open free showing of that film, called "Breast Self-Examination," has been arranged by the Princess Anne unit of the American Cancer Society with the cooperation of the Beach Theatre. A physician will be present to answer questions after the film showing.

Mrs. Joseph Legalia, public education chairman, stated that this film "Breast Self-Examination" has a calm, positive approach. With good taste and dignity the film portrays a technique of self-examination which enables the viewers to find possible lumps that might be cancer. It makes clear, however, that the majority of lumps discovered will not be malignant.

Emphasis is placed on the fact that when cancer of the breast is detected in its early stage and proper treatment is begun at once, 70% of all cases can be cured.

"The slogan for this important film will be "Each one Brings a Friend."

Remember the date—Wednesday, April 16th—10:30 a.m. place, Beach Theatre, Virginia Beach. Admission free.

Golf Tourney Schedule Announced by Country Club

The spring and summer golf tournaments schedule for members of the Princess Anne Country Club has been announced by the club's golf committee.

A guest-member invitational tournament will again highlight the program. This event is scheduled for the weekend of June 7 and 8. It is a handicap affair and each member will play with an out of town guest. The combined handicap cannot exceed eight.

The annual club championship, as announced by the committee, will be played the latter part of July and the first part of August. The finals of this annual event are slated for August 10.

Much interest is expected in the club championship tournament this year since a new champion will be crowned. The winner last year was Tom Strange, who assumed his new duties as professional at Portsmouth's Elizabeth Manor Club this month.

The tournament schedule gets underway beginning April 1 with the annual four ball match play handicap tournament. Defending champions in this event are P. J. "Pete" Dean and Al Muffin.

Following the four ball tournament will be the Windholz handicap tournament for members. This event runs from April 18 through May 11.

The father and son tournament will be played in June and a flag tournament is set for July 24. The senior championship is scheduled for the month of July. Frank Atkinson is defending champion.

The schedule concludes with the junior championship in August and the Vincent G. Thomas handicap event. The children's nine hole tournament is set for Wednesday, September 3.

Kick Off for Beach Extension of Norfolk YWCA To Be Held Friday

The official "kick-off" of the newly organized Virginia Beach Extension program of the Norfolk YWCA will be held this Friday afternoon at 1:30 at the Hotel Waverly in the form of a desert and coffee hour. This event will feature registration for the new figure control classes which begin at the Waverly on April 11.

These classes are designed to help those with figure problems to correct them, and those with good figures to keep them. With summer rapidly approaching, these classes should prove ideal helping local ladies ready themselves for beachwear.

Rhythmic exercises, diet programs, measurement charts and weigh-ins are featured in these figure control classes.

Classes will be under the direction of Mrs. Carl F. Barrow, head of the department of Health and Recreation at the Norfolk YWCA. This is the first class in the new extension program, and further classes will be planned according to its success.

All persons interested in the YWCA and its activities are requested to attend Friday's social hour at the Hotel Waverly.

For further information, call Mrs. T. C. Berry, Virginia Beach, 1558-A; Mrs. C. N. Day, Virginia Beach, 341-W2; Mrs. Milton Perrell, Virginia Beach, 2639-W; YWCA, MA 2-6521.

Lawn Mower To Be Given By Garden Clubs

The Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County will hold a drawing on April 30th at 11 a.m. at Brown's Leno Station at Atlantic avenue and 31st street for a nationally known 4-horse power Springfield Riding Lawn Mower.

This mower will be on public view at Brown's Leno Station, Fuel and Feed Supply Store on 19th and Pacific avenues and the Colonial Store on 31st street, during the month of April.

Tickets may be sold at the place of display, and the person giving out the lucky winning number will in turn receive a prize of $10.00. It is not necessary for the winner to be present at the drawing.

This Riding Mower will certainly be a worthwhile prize for the lucky person in our community and especially the men and boys who find lawn clipping a little consuming and endless job. Using this riding mower will be a pleasure, and no more coaxing at every eligible person in the family to do the job will be necessary. You are invited to stop and examine this mower while it is on display.

Proceeds from the project will be used for replacement and new planting along the Atlantic Parkway, on Laskin Road from the over-pass into Virginia Beach and the 26th street strip.

Donation tickets will be 50c. Further information regarding tickets may be had by contacting Mrs. T. Frazer James, 1066 and Mrs. E. M. Hardy, 813.

P-T-A MEETING will be a record pantomime by 4 Linkhorn Park School will hold its next P-T-A meeting Monday, March 31st at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mr. Harry Snyder, chairman of the May Carnival will lead a discussion about this project.

There will be an election of P-T-A officers for the coming year, followed by an introduction of the school basketball team.

Entertainment will be a record pantomime by 4 of the 8th grade boys.

THIS NEW WEED-KILLING "BLANKET"
CAN SAVE YOU $20 TO $90 PER ACRE
IN VEGETABLE CROPS

It's Vegadex, and it kills weeds for you in a new way. You spray it only once—at planting time. Vegadex forms an invisible chemical blanket over your soil that smothers weeds. Peaky annual grasses—even tough weeds like purslane and henbit—sprout, tough the "blanket," and die. Because weeds seldom appear, Vegadex can cut labor costs for hand weeding as much as 800 per acre. Your vegetables come through unharmed, with no weeds to fight them for sunlight, water and plant food. And Vegadex won't "build up" in your soil, even if you spray each time you plant.

Before you plant your next crop, drop by your nearest Monsanto Farm Chemical Dealer. He'll tell you how Vegadex adds extra profits to every acre of vegetables you harvest.

WEED-KILLING "BLANKET" IN ACTION!
All celery planted same time. Only difference: celery at left was hand sprayed once with Vegadex at planting. Results like this, last year, saved commercial growers from $20 to $90 an acre on hand-weeding costs.

Right now you're spraying right. But you haven't done it right yet. The special effect of the "BLANKET" effect that completely smothers the annual weeds that ruin your crop.

MIDDELEBROOK BROWNE
Vegadex is only for vegetable, melon, fruit, nut, and berry crops. It does not kill weeds, broadleaf, crucifer, legume, root, tuber, or fruit crops. It does not kill weeds, broadleaf, crucifer, legume, root, tuber, or fruit crops.

ELECTRIC

Mrs. Modern's "top" secret is the automatic top element on her new Electric Range. She just sets it to the right cake making temperature... and that's the way it keeps the griddle, through batch after tender, golden batch of perfect hot cakes. And that's just one of its tricks—from frying chicken to simmering soup, with never a scorch or a boil-over!

And her oven has a memory! Like the automatic top element, it remembers the baking temperature she dials, and holds it any length of time. Best of all, it can remember to turn itself on and off at whatever hours Mrs. M commands. So she can leave it to bake whole meals all by itself!

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK

SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and foibles... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

I expect you're still looking for Lenten dishes and surely vegetable dinners are a perfect solution for a Lenten Meal.

Nothing succeeds like celery, as a seasoning, a relish and a vegetable - It's an all-around epicurean delight. Have you ever tried cooking celery?

Celery has been socially prominent for ages. The ancient Greeks esteemed it so highly that they used celery stalks as awards to Athletic celebrities. Today, we serve stalks teamed with chilled olives, pickles or carrot sticks at our banquets for celebrities.

Besides the crisp texture and delicate, aromatic flavor that bring a June-in-January refreshment to your meals, celery is always a popular table guest because of its congenial disposition. A good mixer it goes with, and flatters, such a wide variety of foods.

In her d'oeuvres, salads and sandwiches, celery points up the flavor of seafood, cheese, chicken, nuts, apples, avocados, or what crave you. Celery softens the bland goodness of potatoes in a steaming satisfying casserole. Smothered celery and onions complement each other deliciously in a new and different side dish.

And, oh! Joy for the weight watcher who feels the irresistible urge to fall off the diet-wagon, a good-sized stalk of celery counts only seven calories. Go ahead and nibble a tasty - take two, even three you needn't fear waistline reprisals and you may well lose some pounds and inches.

During a recent weight reduction experiment conducted by the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association each dieter in one group consumed an average sized bunch of celery daily, eating it before and between meals as an appetite quencher - Those in a second group used cellulose tablets for the same purpose. The celery munchers lost more weight and reported fewer hunger pangs than pill swallows.

Both varieties of celery - the so-called yellow, which looks white and the shorter - stalked green variety - are available the year around and just as crisp, fresh, good in midwinter as during the warm months.

Local Girl Receives Commendation From NMSC

Miss Elizabeth Southland of Virginia Beach High School has been commended by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation for her outstanding performance on a nationwide college aptitude test according to Mr. James A. Johnston, Jr., Principal.

The Virginia Beach student was a Virginia runner-up in the 1957-58 Merit Scholarship competition, and will be sent a letter of recommendation by National Merit Scholarship Corp. for use in applying to colleges. John M. Stalnaker, president of NMSC, believed that the 3600 students who received the commendation rank in the top one or two per cent in ability in the senior classes of high schools nationwide.

"While the students receiving this commendation did not quite reach the finals of the 1957-58 Merit Scholarship competition, each of them has demonstrated slightly superior ability and outstanding promise to benefit from college training," declared Mr. Stalnaker.

"I hope that every one of them will make a special effort to obtain the best college education possible. Our country needs more able people like these."

The annual National Merit Scholarship competition offers the largest system of privately financed scholarships in the United States. The Merit Scholarship Program is open to all high school seniors in the United States and its possessions.

This year, over 260,000 outstanding seniors from over 14,000 schools entered the competition which began with a nationwide screening examination in October, 1957. About 7300 students, who have already been named, are now in the finals of the current competition. Over 1000 four-year Merit Scholarships worth an estimated $5 million to the winners and their colleges will be awarded about May 1, 1958.

MIRAGE

I sat on the sands, watching the palm trees, the city silhouetted against the sky. And as I did, suddenly the city wasn't there any more. I saw only the palms.

It was like being transported to another time and place. It was the day when He was entering the city, and His devoted followers had strewn palm leaves in His path. In church, that morning, our minister had told us the story of Palm Sunday. Now I realized how much this message meant to me. Watching the palms, I realized that all of us need help in understanding life's basic truths. We find that help in the Church. Then we can dwell upon what we have learned until it has full meaning for us... as Palm Sunday, now, has for me.

SEED TREATMENT FOR SWEET POTATOES

Sweet potato slips should be treated before bedding to destroy disease spores that are present, and to aid in preventing seed piece decay in the plant bed.

There are two materials that are recommended for seed treatment. The first and most effective is bichloride of mercury plus wettable sulphur. This should be mixed at the rate of 4 ounces to 50 gallons of water plus 1 to 3 pounds of wettable sulphur. After treating 10 bushels of seed, add ½ ounce of mercury and sufficient water to restore the solution to its original volume. This process may be repeated after the second ten bushels, but after treating 20 bushels the old solution should be discarded and a new solution made up. This is a very effective treatment for scurf and black rot. However, to get good control you must leave the seed in the solution at least 10 minutes.

Semenal Bel is a good material, but not as good as the first. It has an advantage over the bichloride of mercury in that it does not require leaving the seed in the solution any length of time. A momentary dip is all that is required. One disadvantage is that Semenal Bel will not control scurf. It will, however, control black rot. Semenal Bel should be mixed at the rate of 3 pounds to 50 gallons of water. This solution does not lose its strength during use, but when the volume is insufficient to cover the potatoes, new solutions should be made.

Treating your seed is only one of the ways in improving the quality of your potatoes, but it is a tremendous step in the right direction.

Johnny Butler of Newsoms exhibited the grand champion single animal in the annual Smithfield Junior Market Hog Show and Sale at the Smithfield Livestock Market Saturday.

Johnny Butler, former livestock specialist of N. C. State College and one of the judges, said the 210-pound Duroc gilt that won top prize was the best specimen he had ever seen.

Larry Johnson of Lynnhaven, Princess Anne County, exhibited the animal adjudged reserve champion—a 210-pound Yorkshire gilt, which Butler also pronounced the best specimen of the breed he had ever seen.

Gravely of Smithfield bought the grand champion at $11.11 a pound. The Smithfield Packing Company got the reserve champion at 35 cents a pound.

The champion Yorkshire came from the Sawyer Brothers' herd on the Holland Swamp Road, Princess Anne County.

Poss of Three
Bennett Rawls of Holland, Nansemond County, exhibited the pen of three hogs adjudged grand champions. Hampshires, they averaged 215 pounds and were bought by the Smithfield Packing Company for 40 cents a pound. Jimmy Weaver of Holland exhibited the reserve champion pen.

Durocs bought by Joel E. Harrell and Son of Suffolk at $30.25 per 100 pounds.

Larry Johnson of Princess Anne also took first place in the 220-240 pound pen class.

The animals were judged three weight classes, singly and in pens of three—180-189, 200-219, and 220-240. A market show, the hogs were not judged by breed.

178 Entries

Coming from six counties, the 41 exhibitors brought 178 hogs. Of these, 24 failed to make the required minimum weight of 180 pounds and three exceed the 240-pound maximum.

Of the remaining 151 hogs, all but six graded U.S. No. 1. The six graded No. 2 and none graded No. 3 or Medium.

The No. 1 hogs were grouped by weights and sold thus: 50 pounds and under, averaging 189, to Gravely at $24.50 per hundred; weight; 40 in the 220-219 group, averaging 204 to Harrell at $23.50; 17 in the 220-240 group averaging 228 to Smithfield Packing Company for $23.

The No. 2's averaged 207 pounds and went to Smithfield Packing Company at $22.50. The 24 light hogs that did not qualify for grading went to Harrell at $21.25 and the three heavy ones averaging 256 went to Smithfield Packing Company at $20.25.

The show thus had roughly $8,000 worth of hogs on hand.

Role M. Godsey, VPI animal husbandman who had attended the show from year to year said the show was the best yet in Southeastern Virginia and contained "some of the best hogs I've seen." He praised the junior hog growers for their fine work.

Sidney Underwood assisted Butler with the judging and Hewitt Cabell, Southampton County 4-H Club member, was the auctioneer.

POULTRY SCHOOL HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

The Poultry School held last Thursday sponsored by the Agriculture Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce was one of the best that I have ever had an opportunity to attend. This was of the best that the producers attending because there were many suggestions that a similar school be held next year.

Dr. Sam Thorpe, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee pointed out that it is the wish of the Committee to be of service to the agriculture in Tidewater Virginia. This Poultry School is but one of the many activities carried on by the committee.

Dan Kite who talked on housing poultry pointed out that the ideal temperature for egg production and meat production was 65° Fahrenheit. Both will still do well in temperatures ranging from 50-65° on the minimum side to 70-75° on the maximum side.

When you go below the minimum or above the maximum, production tends to decrease. For a poultry house to be ideal, you should keep the temperature within this range regardless of the outside temperature. The main points discussed by Mr. Kite were insulation of the roof, painting roof with reflective painting and proper ventilation.

Mr. Denver Bragg, Associate Extension Poultry Husbandman at VPI, discussed the Cage System of Housing. He quoted many different conclusions both pro and con on both systems from many experiments carried on in the Country. His summary was that poultry producers should use the system that they like. There did not seem to be much over-all difference between the systems.

One of the highlights of the Poultry School was a discussion by Carlton Elberidge, a poultry producer of Princess Anne. Carlton pointed out his own situation exceedingly well. He pointed out how he housed his birds, cost of egg production, cost of housing, methods of culling and methods of marketing eggs.

One of the most important factors involved in the business today is producing quality eggs. Practically every egg is a quality egg when laid. However, if not handled properly will soon lose that quality. Mr. R. L. Wesley, Assistant Poultry Husbandman, told the producers how to put quality eggs on the market. One of the big big items was cooling. It is necessary for any producer—producing at least 500 birds—to have some type of cooling system to cool eggs.

At the end of the meeting a panel discussion was held with the speakers of the day on the panel and the audience directing questions to the panel members.

This type of meeting is one of the best ways we know today for getting the best information before our producers.

Chesapeake Club Takes 3 Awards At District Meet

The Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club topped all competition by carrying off three major awards at the recent Tidewater District meeting, according to Mrs. O. T. Edmondson, president. Held March 12 at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point, the meeting of federated women's clubs saw the Chesapeake Beach group receive the Helen Woodward award, a silver trophy, for the best scrapbook compiled in the district; a blue ribbon for the best book submitted by a club of less than 100 members; and another blue for gardening activity. Mrs. H. W. Pulford, president-elect, is garden department chairman.

In addition, eight ribbons were won in the art contest by the following members: Mrs. R. W. Spruill, two blue and two red; Mrs. R. J. Vellines, two red, and Mrs. A. L. Zavlenski, two yellow.

Mrs. E. A. Hudson, a club member who is also American home chairman for the Tidewater District, presented the awards in the gardening competition. Mrs. O. T. Edmondson, club president, gave a special report on the club's program for adult-ins and senior members of the community.
